WHEREAS, current law (sections 53-21-138 and 53-21-139, Montana Code Annotated), originally enacted by the 1991 Legislature, provides a solid statutory framework for diversion of mentally ill adults from the justice system, but a key barrier is that counties lack sufficient resources to pay for treatment alternatives; and

WHEREAS, 63% of admissions the Montana State Hospital, whose daily census routinely exceeds its licensed capacity of 189, are for emergency and court-ordered detention and evaluation pending involuntary commitment proceedings; and

WHEREAS, county reliance on the Montana State Hospital for emergency and court-ordered detention and evaluation diverts resources from community-based services and results in significant county transportation costs;

WHEREAS, state matching funds granted to counties based on certain criteria is an appropriate way to share costs and provide incentives for resources to be spent on community-based treatment capacity rather than on jail capacity or on transportation and capacity at the Montana State Hospital; and

WHEREAS, a county self-insurance pool that would allow counties to pay a regular premium in exchange from insurance to help pay for unpredictable and sometimes financially catastrophic precommitment costs.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. State matching fund grants for county crisis intervention, jail diversion, and precommitment costs. (1) As soon as possible after July 1 of each year, from funds appropriated by the legislature for the purposes of this section, the department shall grant to each eligible county state matching funds for eligible county expenditures made in the previous fiscal year for jail diversion and crisis intervention services to implement 53-21-138 and 53-21-139 and for insurance coverage against catastrophic precommitment costs. The grant amount may not exceed 50% of the county's eligible expenditures and must be prorated based on available funding. The department shall develop a mechanism to provide higher grant amounts to counties that reduce their admissions to the state hospital for involuntary emergency and court-ordered detention and evaluation.

(2) To be eligible for the state matching funds, the county, in the time and manner prescribed by the department, shall:

(a) apply for the funds;

(b) develop and submit to the department a county jail diversion and crisis intervention services strategic plan pursuant to 53-21-138 and 53-21-139, including a plan for community-based or regional emergency and court-ordered detention and examination services.

(d) participate in a statewide or regional jail suicide prevention program, if one has been established by the department for the state or for the region in which the county is situated; and

(e) collect and report data and information on county jail diversion and crisis intervention services in the form and manner prescribed by the department to support short- and long-term program evaluation.

(3) The department shall adopt rules to implement the provisions of this section.

(4) Insurance premiums paid by counties pursuant to subsection (2) (d) must be considered an eligible expense under this section.
