duress in an attempt to induce a person to sign an instrument or to agree to the terms of a document against that person's will.

(c) "Condemnor" means a department, agency, or instrumentality of the state or a political subdivision of the state, a department, agency, or instrumentality of two or more states, or a person who has the authority to acquire property by eminent domain as provided in this chapter.

(d) "Every reasonable effort" means the effort that a reasonable person acting as a motivated buyer would use to accomplish the purchase of a property interest of a reluctant seller.

(e) "Final written offer" means the last written offer presented to the condemnee at least 30 days before service of process in a civil action pursuant to 70-30-202.

(f) "Negotiation" means a communication process of give-and-take discussions between parties that is intended to produce a settlement or an agreement.

(g) "Person" means an individual, partnership, corporation, or association."

The amount may not be less than the approved appraisal of the fair market value of the property. Any decrease or increase in the fair market value of real property prior to the date of valuation caused by the public improvement for which the property is acquired or by the likelihood that the property would be acquired for the improvement, other than an amount due to physical deterioration within the reasonable control of the owner, must be disregarded in determining the compensation for the property. The owner of the real property to be acquired must be provided with a written statement of and summary of the basis for the amount established as just compensation. When appropriate, the just compensation for the real property acquired and for damages to remaining real property must be separately stated."
