Whitefish Pilot THURSDAY, [illegible]

YOUR OPINION

Letters to the editor

Richard III experience a great community effort

On behalf of Shakespeare students at Whitefish High School, I would like to thank everyone who made it possible for us to experience Shakespeare's Richard III on stage and in the classroom. First and foremost, thank you Gayle MacLaren, Carolyn Pitman and Lonnie Porro of The Whitefish Theatre Company. Without your enthusiasm and dedication the professional show would not have been possible. Along with the performance came an opportunity for Shakespeare students to work with an instructor with The Acting Company of New York City. Over the course of the week, students explored the play's theme in modern-day dramatizations and [illegible]

[illegible] the following organizations are [illegible] with [illegible] Rotary Club of Whitefish, [illegible] the management of Whitefish Waterside High School, Key Club and School District 44. We thank all of you for your generosity and for supporting the arts. We would also like to thank the Garden Wall [illegible] Breakfast for donating luxurious accommodations for the instructor.

Yes, the opportunity was a great community success and one we will remember. Thank you.
