Compulsory Mental Health Screening in Public Schools

Nancy Levant

At 6:00 a.m., with the first thoughts of the day waking up in my mind, I was suddenly struck with words that came gently rolling through my morning brain: ...God works in mysterious ways...

It was one of those "came out of nowhere" moments that creep in from time to time and, as a woman, I've learned to give a little pause and let such thoughts take root.

My next thought was that those 5 words were the greatest under-statement ever written or that could ever be said. And I suddenly realized how important they really are, and that their meaning and timeliness is very important to American people right now.

I received an email attachment that I'd like to pass on to readers, and I ask that you pass it on to everyone you know. It is an article about compulsory mental health testing of American children and of pregnant women. Before I start swearing, let me put this out there for consideration:

Our economic system, government, our business theories and models, our ecology, energy, pharmaceutical, educational, mental health, and senior services conglomerations are corrupt. Why? Because they are agenda-based, reliant on big money, and in bed with big money, lobbyists, and elected officials. Truth.

Now, some numbskulls have decided to let the above-mentioned mix create, and yes, I mean create, the definition of childhood sanity – that would be ages newborn to 18, and equally decide what a sane pregnant women looks like from week 6 through the 9th month, and on through to one year postpartum.

Well, well, well... That corrupt bunch, who lies non-stop about their agendas and financial statements, who create giant bureaucratic webs, which are actually called masking illegalities and skimming money, and who define the very meaning of pathological lying – they are going to judge the sanity of our children throughout their entire childhoods, and use the public schools that American people fund to accomplish this? And what part of our taxes is to pay for the 2-year surveillance of pregnant and postpartum women and the records kept on those women? And for what purpose, excuse me? Now, add the Children's Mental Health Act to the U.N. and its global government, Agenda 21, The Law of the Seas Treaty, the theft of our lands and water, road removal, and I guarantee you the coming of "food control" by our conservancy organizations, and the true nature of the beast takes shape. Money, profits, control, and lies. Truth.

Why determine the mental health of all American children? That's easy. They are the coming work force for the global conglomerations in the U.S.. They are to be pre-determined and pre-defined. The ones who are poor students, free-thinkers, nationalists, religious, unusual, or radical will be kept in low paying, low power jobs. They will be denied higher education, and they will be separated from the compliant masses. As a 40% reduction of the human population has been called for, perhaps they will disappear from the face of the Earth, as multi-millions certainly have. History repeats.

Why determine the sanity of pregnant women? That's easy. The number of children she will be allowed to birth will depend on her loyalty to the New World Order, the stature of her marriage, and whether or not she is a non-conformist. It's not like this hasn't happened before in repressive human history. Many women have been denied the right to reproduction. Thousands and thousands of women, alive today, and right here in the United States, have, been denied reproductive rights. Look it up. And equally, there is the coming population control. Soon, being fruitful will mean growing fruit.

But as insidious as this is, I can't help but laugh at the thought of "the bureaucracies" deciding upon the sanity of children and mothers, when they are pathologically dishonest organizations by design! Sorry, it's absolutely laughable.

Home school your children. Get them away from bad influences like government paper pushers who keep records on your children for 12-20 years, and who are clueless puppets and trained themselves by government curriculum. There is not a good teacher in the world that can, today, teach in our public school system with a clear conscience. And frankly, parents, continued support of American public schools is just as bad. You know how bad it is, and you know that schools now exist to serve world governance. That's hard truth. Sorry, but you've got to face the facts.

The plans for control of human beings are being implemented. Just start piecing it all together. And remember, God does work in mysterious ways. We're here to serve this moment in time, so rise.
