To the Senate Judiciary Committee Re: HB 730

Traumatic post-abortion syndrome has been documented as a very real and frequent experience.

To allow a minor to receive an abortion without parental knowledge or consent is to play Russian roulette with their physical, mental and spiritual well-being.

As an adult I realize how difficult it is to make a wise decision when in a state of emotional turmoil. How much more so for a child who decides to have an abortion because it appears to be the easy thing to do and maybe no one will ever know — then have to carry the shame and guilt for that decision for a lifetime.

As the mother of three daughters I absolutely know I would want to be informed before any medical procedure was performed on any of them.

Please vote yes on HB 730.

RE: HB420 3-14-05

Senator Wheat,

I met with Shirley Brown this morning. If you remember she supported HB420 unamended but opposed the bill with the amendment. I am OK without the amendment.

Sincerely

Pat Wagman
