My Son is 3½ yrs old his name is Delfino, he was diagnosed this past August W/Autism. As a parent it very challenging to say the least one of the most acurate way to put it to term is, he is out of touch with our world and doesn't comprehend ~~ma~~ the way a normal 3yr old would Early intervention is the key to sucsess I have been told this so many times but most of the agencys have very long waiting lists.
