Legislative Actions Addressing Nonresident Deer And Elk Licenses

| Year | What | How Many Created |
|---|---|---|
| 1975 | Capped nonresident deer & elk combination licenses | 17,000 |
| 1987 | Landowner sponsored deer combination licenses | 2,000 |
| 1988 | Added nonresident deer combination licenses | 4,600 |
| *1998 | Nonresident elk combination licenses were created which freed up additional nonresident deer licenses (number available depends on how many nonresident hunters apply for an elk only combination). In 2012, 2195 nonresident deer licenses were made available. | @2,000 |
| 2007 | Nonresident Youth Sponsored big game combination (1/2 price of BG Combo). See 2011 | 300 |
| *2008 | Eliminated the requirement that nonresidents purchase big game combination before applying for an antlerless elk B license. Elk B licenses sold. | Unlimited |
| 2009 | Allows nonresident college students attending college in Montana to purchase a nonresident license (includes conservation, upland game bird, season fishing, general deer & general elk) at the resident sportsmen's license price. | Unlimited |
| 2009 | Created Come Home to Hunt combination license, which allows up to 1,000 nonresidents who once lived and hunted in Montana to return to hunt with a family member. | 1,000 |
| 2011 | Nonresident Youth Sponsored big game combination (1/2 price of BG Combo) cap on license sales was eliminated | Unlimited |
| *2011 | Big game combination license holders that apply for an elk permit and are unsuccessful can apply for an 80% refund and return the combination license or keep the deer combination portion of the original license and return the elk portion which is then available for resale. The deer combination license price plus $25 is the price if an individual chooses to keep only the deer combination license. (2,174 elk combinations were available as a result in 2012) | @2,000 |
| 2011 | Nonresident Montana Native hunting license was created for individuals that were born in Montana, had previously purchased a resident Montana license or completed a Montana hunter education course and have a direct relative (natural or adopted child, parent or sibling) living in Montana. These licenses sell for 4 times the resident price. | Unlimited |
| | Totals | 28,600 |

Best estimate of the number of licenses available based on previous year's sales.
*Does not include unlimited licenses.
