

Grandfathering in Licensing

Nursing Home Administrators:

Grandfather Clause -- Education Requirements Waived for License Renewals: Section 2, Ch. 464, L. 1989, provided: "A person licensed as a nursing home administrator on [the effective date of this act] does not have to present evidence satisfactory to the board of sufficient education as required by 37-9-301(1)(b)(ii) in order to renew his license as a nursing home administrator." Effective October 1, 1989.

Occupational Therapists:

Grandfather Provisions: Section 20, Ch. 629, L. 1985, provided: "The board shall grant a license to any person certified as an occupational therapist registered (OTR) or a certified occupational therapy assistant (COTA) by the American occupational therapy association (AOTA) prior to October 1, 1985."

Respiratory Care Therapists:

Licensure -- Grandfather Provision: Section 14, Ch. 532, L. 1991, provided: "The board shall grant a license to practice respiratory care without examination or completion of the requisite educational program to a person who has been performing respiratory care in this state for at least 1 year on [the effective date of this section] [effective April 22, 1991]."

Severability: Section 15, Ch. 532, L. 1991, was a severability clause.

Landscape Architects:

Grandfather Clause: Section 7, Ch. 476, L. 1975, read: "At any time within one (1) year after this act becomes effective, upon application therefor and payment of the application and certificate fee, the board shall issue a certificate of registration without oral or written examination to any practicing landscape architect of good character, who qualifies under the provisions of section 66-3805 (now 37-66-304), who shall submit under oath evidence satisfactory to the board that he was practicing landscape architecture at the time this act became effective, and has had responsible charge of work of character satisfactory to the board."
