(1) The board of public education shall work with school districts to jointly consider methods to address harassment, intimidation, and bullying in public and other accredited schools.

(2) The board and school districts shall direct their efforts in combating harassment, intimidation, and bullying through the development of a model policy. These efforts should:

(a) involve consultation with parents, school personnel, students, and members of the community in the development of a model policy for districts;

(b) ensure that a model policy, at a minimum, includes:

(i) a definition of harassment, intimidation, and bullying that is at least as inclusive as the definition provided in subsection (4);

(ii) a procedure for a student or employee to report an act of harassment, intimidation, and bullying;

(iii) a procedure for resolving an allegation of a violation of the district's policy;

(iv) a prohibition on students, school district employees, or volunteers from engaging in reprisal or retaliation against a victim, witness, or person who provides information about an act of harassment, intimidation, and bullying; and

(v) an outline of the consequences and appropriate remedial action for a person who commits an act of harassment, intimidation, and bullying or retaliates against a person who reports an act of harassment, intimidation, and bullying; and

(c) identify resources available to provide training for school district employees or volunteers on the prevention of harassment, intimidation, and bullying.

(3) The board of public education shall, upon request, report to the education and local government interim committee on the efforts taken jointly with school districts to address the issue of harassment, intimidation, and bullying in public and other accredited schools, including the number of school districts that have adopted policies prohibiting harassment, intimidation, and bullying.

(4) As used in [sections 1 and 2], "harassment, intimidation, and bullying" means any gesture or written, verbal, or physical act that:

(a) a reasonable person should know will have the effect of harming a student, damaging a student's property, or placing a student in reasonable fear of harm to the student's person or damage to the student's property; or

(b) has the effect of insulting or demeaning a student or group of students in such a way as to disrupt or interfere with the school's educational mission or the education of the student."
