

The definition that a majority of Montanans would agree with is:
A "Quality Basic Education" is a curriculum of academic subjects relating to intellectual skills that do not offend any child's heritage.

Testimony by Elaine Sollie Herman (Eagle Forum) February 3, 2005
Room 137 House Select Education Committee State Capitol