Section 3. Section 10-4-207, MCA, is amended to read:

10-4-207. Statute of limitations. (1) Except as provided in subsection (3), a deficiency may not be assessed or collected with respect to the year for which a return is filed unless the notice of the additional fee proposed to be assessed is mailed within 5 years from the date the return was filed. For purposes of this section, a return filed before the last day prescribed for filing is considered as filed on the last day. If the taxpayer, before the expiration of the period prescribed for assessment of the fee, consents in writing to an assessment after that

1 time, the fee may be assessed at any time prior to the expiration of the period agreed upon.

(2) A refund or credit may is not be allowed or paid with respect to the year for which a return is filed after 5 years from the last day prescribed for filing the return or after 1 year from the date of the overpayment, whichever period expires later, unless before the expiration of the period, the taxpayer files a claim or the department of revenue determines the existence of the overpayment and approves the refund or credit. If the taxpayer has agreed in writing under the provisions of subsection (1) to extend the time within which the department of revenue may propose an additional assessment, the period within which a claim for refund or credit may be filed or a credit or refund allowed if no claim is filed is automatically extended.

9 (3) If a return is required to be filed and the taxpayer fails to file the return, the tax may be assessed or 10 an action to collect the tax may be brought at any time. If a return is required to be filed and the taxpayer files a 11 fraudulent return, the 5-year period provided for in subsection (1) does not begin until discovery of the fraud by 12 the department of revenue."
