DANIEL DONOVAN BIOGRAPHY 01/16/07

Daniel Donovan, a 1971 graduate of the University of California, Berkeley and a 1976 graduate of Hastings College of the Law, San Francisco, is a veteran of over 30 years in civil and criminal practice with his focus on criminal defense. Currently a member of the law firm of Thompson, Potts & Donovan, P.C., of Great Falls, he has extensive experience defending citizens accused in both the federal and state courts of Montana. A Life Member of the National Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers as well as of the Montana Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers, Donovan was founder and first chair of the Criminal Defense Section of the State Bar of Montana. In 1996 and 1997, he successfully briefed and argued a case before the United States Supreme Court, Old Chief v. United States. Donovan was awarded the Charles F. (Timer) Moses Award by the Montana State Bar in 1997 in recognition of his outstanding and committed service in the practice of criminal defense law in Montana. He presently serves as a member of Montana Public Defender Commission and is President of the Montana Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers.
