Good morning Mr. Chair, members of the committee.
For the record, I am Montana Secretary of State Linda McCulloch.

I am here today to support House Bill 235 because it would enhance business services in the Secretary of State's Office.

I would like to thank Representative Kottel for bringing this bill forward and for working with our office to ensure it was something we could support.

Flourishing businesses are critical to the economic vitality and stability of Montana, and the Secretary of State's Office is committed to maintaining positive relationships with all businesses in the state.

House Bill 235 supports existing businesses, encourages new business growth and comes at no cost to state government.

It is a good bill and I ask for your support.
