I came in last June, I wanted to know if I was pregnant – I had taken several tests at home and I didn't believe it. When they told me I was pregnant I didn't know what to do – I already had one child and didn't believe I was ready for a second one, I had no job, I lived in housing...it seemed way too tough. But then I came back and did the ultrasound and when I heard the heartbeat, I realized that baby was mine regardless if there was a father in the picture I knew that baby was mine and I decided to keep it. I knew it was going to be hard, but I was willing to have another baby.
