State of Montana Funding for Non-Beneficiary Students

Federal Grants

Non-Beneficiary Student – is defined as a Montana resident student in which the Tribal College Act does not provide funding.

Tribal College Act – provides about $5700 per student per academic year, for students that are enrolled members of federally recognized tribe or are students who have at least one parent enrolled in a federally recognized tribe.

Non-Beneficiary Student funding has been $3014 per full time equivalent student.

Non-Beneficiary funding is very important and vitally needed funding for several of the tribal colleges.
