MOTHER'S TASTING ROOM

We think you'll dig Mother's beers, and we want you to come sample the goodness first-hand and see what we're all about. Stop by Mother's Tasting Room to sip a pint some time. Once you do, we bet we'll see your pretty face around the joint quite a bit.

The Tasting Room is a recently renovated, great place to have a drink with people who know a ton about craft beers. Is it a bar? Nope. But we do love to tip a few and hang out with good guys and gals. And, since life is about adventure and trying new things, we change our taps on the regular.

The Backyard

Need a great place to play outside? Check out The Backyard at Mother's. Come kick it around our big trees, lots of greenery, honeysuckle, flowers, and—at times—live music. If you need something to play with while you're here, we've got you covered with temporary tats, stickers, pint glasses, shirts, bottle openers, and other fun Mother's schwag (<http://mothers-brewing-company.myshopify.com>).

WASTE NOT. WANT NOT.

Listen, we're not claiming to single-handedly save the planet, but we're doing what we can for it. When renovating Mother's Brewery, we reused all the materials we could from the old bread factory. Our Tasting Room lamps come from pieces of the plant and our kick-ass bar is made from recycled content materials—including wood from the old ceiling and floor joists.
