Subject: Tribal ID information for State Administration Committee

Hello,

Representative Hertz and the committee requested information on who is eligible for a tribal identification for the MT Tribes. This is the information i gathered for federally recognized tribes in MT. I gathered information for the seven (7) MT reservations which is as follows:

Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes:

Eligible age to acquire a Tribal ID: Any age

Are descendants eligible for the tribal ID? No. Enrolled members only.

Cost: $2

Blackfeet Reservation:

Eligible age to acquire a Tribal ID: 13 years old

Are descendants eligible for the tribal ID? Yes. Descendants can acquire a Tribal ID at age 13 as well.

Cost: $10; 65 and older may get a free Tribal ID

Fort Peck Reservation:

Eligible age to acquire a Tribal ID: Any age

Are descendants eligible for the tribal ID? Associates are able to acquire an ID

Associate = Indian blood but not enough for enrollment

Cost: $3

Northern Cheyenne Reservation

Eligible age to acquire a Tribal ID: Any age

Are descendants eligible for the tribal ID? All that are enrolled. Enrollment for Northern Cheyenne is as follows:

Article II, section 1(b) says "Each person 1/2 or more NC Indian blood, regardless of residence, born heretofore or hereafter to any member or descendant of a member of the NC tribe whose name was or is on the census roll referred to in Section 1(a) shall automatically be entitled to membership"

Cost: $10; this may be different

Rocky Boy Reservation
