

AN ACT AMENDING PREMIUM TAX RATES AND FILING FEES FOR CASUALTY INSURERS OFFERING POLICIES OF LEGAL PROFESSIONAL LIABILITY INSURANCE; AMENDING SECTIONS 33-2-705, 33-2-708, AND 33-27-108, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE AND A RETROACTIVE APPLICABILITY DATE.

WHEREAS, the application of Montana's premium tax rate of 2.75% and licensing fee of $1,900, together with the application of other states' retaliatory tax, fees, and licensing laws, unnecessarily impedes the growth and financial stability of Montana-domiciled legal professional liability insurers by requiring these Montana-domiciled insurers to pay higher taxes and fees to another state under the laws of the other state; and

WHEREAS, the imposition by other states of higher taxes and fees on Montana-domiciled legal professional liability insurers than are applied to those states' own domestic insurance companies that do business in their state unfairly discriminates against and hinders the growth and stability of these Montana-domiciled legal professional liability insurers and is contrary to the best interests of Montana; and

WHEREAS, the purpose of this act is to aid in the protection, growth, and stability of Montana-domiciled legal professional liability insurers that have a principal business office located in Montana and employ Montana residents but that derive substantial net direct premiums on account of policies covering subjects or risks located, resident, or to be performed in states or jurisdictions outside of Montana; and

WHEREAS, the state of Montana will benefit by supporting the growth and stability of Montana-domiciled legal professional liability insurance companies that have a principal business office located in Montana, employ Montana residents, and issue legal professional liability insurance in Montana and other states and jurisdictions.
