16
17	NEW SECTION. Section 1. Annuity continuing education. (1) An insurance producer may not solicit
18	the sale of an annuity product unless:
19	(a) the insurance producer has adequate knowledge of the product to recommend the annuity; AND
20	(b) the insurance producer is in compliance with the insurer's standards for product training; and
21	(c) the insurance producer has completed the continuing education requirements of this section from
22	a continuing education provider. An insurance producer may rely on insurer-provided product-specific training
23	standards and materials to comply with this section only if they are approved under 33-17-1204.
24	(2) (a) An insurance producer shall complete a continuing education training course of at least 4
25	continuing education credit hours approved under 33-17-1204 prior to engaging in the offering or sale of
26	annuities.
27	(b) An insurance producer who is otherwise entitled to engage in the sale of annuity products on [the
28	effective date of this act] shall complete the requirements of this section within 6 months after [the effective date
29	of this act].
30	(3)(2) The training required under this section must include, at a minimum, information on the following

2	(a) the types of annuities and various classifications of annuities;
3	(b) identification of the parties to an annuity;
4	(c) how product-specific annuity contract features affect consumers;
5	(d) the application of income taxation of qualified and nonqualified annuities;
6	(e) the primary uses of annuities; and
7	(f) appropriate sales practices, replacement, and disclosure requirements.
8	(4)(3) Training required under this section may not include any information on marketing, sales
9	techniques, or the specific aspects of a particular insurer's products.
10	(5) Training required under this section must comply with the rules and guidelines applicable to insurance
11	producer continuing education courses as set forth in Title 33, chapter 17, part 12.
12	(6)(4) An insurer shall verify that an insurance producer has completed the training under this section
13	before allowing the producer to sell an annuity product for that insurer. An insurer may satisfy its responsibility
14	under this section by obtaining certificates of completion of the training course or obtaining reports provided by
15	a database system satisfactory to the commissioner.

6	Section 3. Section 33-20-802, MCA, is amended to read:
7	"33-20-802. Purpose scope. (1) The purpose of this part is to require insurers to establish a system
8	to supervise recommendations and to set forth standards and procedures for recommendations to consumers
9	that result in a transaction involving annuity products so that the insurance needs and financial objectives of
10	consumers at the time of the transaction are appropriately addressed.
11	(2) This part applies to any recommendation to purchase, or exchange, or replace an annuity made to
12	a consumer by an insurance producer or by an insurer when an insurance producer is not involved that results
13	in the recommended purchase, or exchange, or replacement."
14
15	Section 4. Section 33-20-804, MCA, is amended to read:
16	"33-20-804. Definitions. As used in this part, the following definitions apply:
17	(1) "Annuity" means a fixed annuity that is individually solicited, regardless of whether the product is
18	classified as an individual or group annuity.
19	(2) "Continuing education credit" means one continuing education credit approved under Title 33, chapter
20	17, part 12.
21	(3) "Continuing education provider" means an individual or entity that is approved to offer continuing
22	education courses under Title 33, chapter 17, part 12.
23	(2)(4)(2) "Insurance producer", in addition to the definition in 33-17-102, includes an insurance producer
24	licensed to sell, solicit, or negotiate annuities.
25	(3)(5)(3) "Insurer", in addition to the definition in 33-1-201, includes an insurer providing annuity products.
26	(4)(6)(4) "Recommendation" means advice provided by an insurance producer or by an insurer when
27	an insurance producer is not involved to an individual consumer that results in a purchase, or
28	replacement of an annuity in accordance with that advice.
29	(7)(5) "Replacement" means a transaction in which a new policy or contract is to be purchased, and it
30	is known or should be known to the proposing producer or to the proposing insurer when an insurance producer

1	is not involved that by reason of the transaction, an existing policy or contract has been or is to be:
2	(a) lapsed, forfeited, surrendered or partially surrendered, assigned to the replacing insurer, or otherwise
3	terminated;
4	(b) converted to reduced paid-up insurance, continued as extended term insurance, or otherwise
5	reduced in value by the use of nonforfeiture benefits or other policy values;
6	(c) amended so as to effect either a reduction in benefits or in the term for which coverage would
7	otherwise remain in force or for which benefits would be paid;
8	(d) reissued with any reduction in cash value; or
9	(e) used in a financed purchase.
10	(8)(6) "Suitability information" means information that is reasonably appropriate to determine the
11	suitability of a recommendation, including the following:
12	(a) age;
13	(b) annual income;
14	(c) financial situation and needs, including the financial resources used for the funding of the annuity;
15	(d) financial experience;
16	(e) financial objectives;
17	(f) intended use of the annuity;
18	(g) financial time horizon;
19	(h) existing assets, including investment and life insurance holdings;
20	(i) liquidity needs:
21	(j) liquid net worth;
22	(k) risk tolerance;
23	(I) tax status; and
24	(m) whether the consumer has a reverse mortgage."
25
26	Section 5. Section 33-20-805, MCA, is amended to read:
27	"33-20-805. Duties of insurers, insurance producers, and independent agencies. (1) In
28	recommending to a consumer the purchase of an annuity or the exchange of an annuity that results in another
29	insurance transaction or series of insurance transactions, the insurance producer or the insurer when an
30	insurance producer is not involved must have reasonable grounds for believing that the recommendation is

1	suitable for the consumer on the basis of the facts disclosed by the consumer as to the consumer's investments,
2	other insurance products, financial situation, and needs-, including the consumer's suitability information, and that
3	there is a reasonable basis to believe all of the following:
4	(a) the consumer has been reasonably informed of various features of the annuity, including the potential
5	surrender period and surrender charge, potential tax penalty if the consumer sells, exchanges, surrenders, or
6	annuitizes the annuity, mortality and expense fees, investment advisory fees, potential charges for and features
7	of riders, limitations on interest returns, insurance and investment components, and market risk;
8	(b) the consumer would receive a tangible net benefit from the transaction;
9	(c) the particular annuity as a whole, the underlying subaccounts to which funds are allocated at the time
10	of the purchase, exchange, or replacement of the annuity, and riders and similar product enhancements, if any,
11	are suitable for the particular consumer based on the consumer's suitability information; and
12	(d) in the case of an exchange or replacement of an annuity, the exchange or replacement is suitable,
13	including taking into consideration whether:
14	(i) the consumer will incur a surrender charge, be subject to the commencement of a new surrender
15	period, lose existing benefits, or be subject to increased fees, investment advisory fees, or charges for riders and
16	similar product enhancements;
17	(ii) the consumer would benefit from product enhancements and improvements;
18	(iii) the consumer has had another annuity exchange or replacement and, in particular, an exchange or
19	replacement within the preceding 36 months; and
20	(iv) the transaction as a whole is suitable for the consumer based on the consumer's suitability
21	information.
22	(2) Prior to the execution of a purchase, or exchange, or replacement of an annuity resulting from a
23	recommendation, an insurance producer or an insurer when an insurance producer is not involved shall make
24	reasonable efforts to obtain the consumer's suitability information. concerning:
25	(a) the consumer's financial status;
26	(b) the consumer's tax status;
27	(c) the consumer's investment objectives; and
28	(d) other information used or considered reasonable in making recommendations to the consumer by
29	the insurance producer or by the insurer when an insurance producer is not involved.
30	(3) Except as permitted under subsection (4), an insurer may not issue an annuity recommended to a
