

The Affordable Care Act (ACA) requires states to identify and recover overpayments and underpayments made to Medicaid providers. The above chart shows collections recovered by fiscal year since the program's inception. Montana recovery audit contractors (RAC) collaborate with state agencies to ensure claims are correctly paid.