

The above chart details Montana’s assistance to qualifying participants to help pay for winter energy bills through the Low Income Energy Assistance Program (LIEAP). The number of enrollees per year is shown on the left axis and is represented in blue. The amount of assistance provided is shown on the right axis and is represented on the chart by the orange line.