

(7) "Combined appropriation" means an appropriation of more than 10-acre feet of water annually from more than one well or developed spring for a single project or development.