

AN ACT REVISING THE UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE LAWS TO CONFORM WITH FEDERAL REQUIREMENTS RELATED TO EMPLOYMENT BY AN EMPLOYER THAT IS AN INDIAN TRIBE; AMENDING SECTIONS 39-51-201, 39-51-204, 39-51-1103, 39-51-1124, AND 39-51-1126, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN EFFECTIVE DATE AND A RETROACTIVE APPLICABILITY DATE.

WHEREAS, on December 21, 2000, federal law changed regarding state law treatment of employment by recognized Indian tribes for the purposes of state unemployment insurance programs by mandating the formerly optional state unemployment insurance coverage of employment by those Indian tribes; and

WHEREAS, as of December 21, 2000, federal law now requires states in which recognized Indian tribes exist to offer to those tribes a choice of experience-rating or direct reimbursable unemployment insurance accounts; and

WHEREAS, Montana's unemployment laws do not conform to the new federal requirements, and nonconformity of the state's unemployment insurance laws with the new federal provisions will jeopardize the ability of all Montana employers to take credit on federal taxes for the amounts paid to Montana's unemployment insurance program and will further depress Montana's economy; and

WHEREAS, the Legislature finds that it is the best interests of all the people of Montana that Montana's unemployment insurance laws conform to those December 21, 2000, federal law changes with respect to the treatment of Indian tribes for unemployment insurance purposes.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MONTANA:

Section 1. Liability of tribal units -- cancellation for failure to make payments. (1) Each tribal unit of an Indian tribe is jointly and severally liable for all contributions or payments in lieu of contributions, including those under subsection (2), owed by any other tribal unit of the same Indian tribe.

(2) (a) An Indian tribe and its tribal units that make contributions are liable for reimbursing the department for 50% of any extended benefits paid pursuant to Title 39, chapter 51, part 24, that are chargeable to the account of the Indian tribe or one of its tribal units.

(b) An Indian tribe and its tribal units that elect to make payments in lieu of contributions are liable for reimbursing the department for 100% of any extended benefits paid pursuant to Title 39, chapter 51, part 24, that are chargeable to the account of the Indian tribe or one of its tribal units.

(3) (a) The failure of an Indian tribe or any of its tribal units to make the required payments under this chapter within 90 days of being given notice that the Indian tribe or tribal unit is delinquent in payment cancels the participation of the Indian tribe and all of its tribal units in the unemployment insurance program provided by this chapter and removes service provided to the Indian tribe and all of its tribal units from being considered as employment, within the meaning 39-51-203.

(b) Payment in full of amounts that have been delinquent for more than 90 days reinstate the participation of the Indian tribe and its tribal units in Montana's unemployment insurance system, and service to the Indian tribe and its tribal units once again is considered to be employment within the meaning of 39-51-203. However, upon reinstatement, the Indian tribe and all of its tribal units no longer have the option of electing to make payments in lieu of contributions and, pursuant to 39-51-1126, are required to make contributions as provided in this chapter.

Section 2. Section 39-51-201, MCA, is amended to read:

(2) "Base period" means the first 4 of the last 5 completed calendar quarters immediately preceding the first day of an individual's benefit year. However, in the case of a combined-wage claim pursuant to the arrangement approved by the secretary of labor of the United States, the base period is the period applicable under the unemployment law of the paying state. For an individual who fails to meet the qualifications of 39-51-2105 or a similar statute of another state because of a temporary total disability, as defined in 39-71-116, or a similar statute of another state or the United States, the base period means the first 4 quarters of the last 5 completed calendar quarters preceding the disability if a claim for unemployment benefits is filed within 24 months of the date on which the individual's disability was incurred.

new claim. A subsequent benefit year may not be established until the expiration of the current benefit year. However, in the case of a combined-wage claim pursuant to the arrangement approved by the secretary of labor of the United States, the base period is the period applicable under the unemployment law of the paying state.

All individuals performing services within this state for any employing unit that maintains two or more separate establishments within this state are considered to be employed by a single employing unit for all the purposes of this chapter. Each individual employed to perform or assist in performing the work of any agent or employee of an employing unit is considered to be employed by the employing unit for the purposes of this chapter, whether the individual was hired or paid directly by the employing unit or by the agent or employee, provided that the employing unit has actual or constructive knowledge of the work.

(a) domestic or household service in a private home, local college club, or local chapter of a college fraternity or sorority, except as provided in 39-51-202(3).
