Insert: "NEW SECTION. Section 8. Emergency grants. (1) There is appropriated to the department of commerce $100,000 for the biennium beginning July 1, 2001, from the interest earnings of the treasure state endowment special revenue account for the purpose of providing local governments, as defined in 90-6-701, with emergency grants for infrastructure projects, as defined in 90-6-701.

(2) The projects eligible for emergency grants must be necessary to remedy conditions that if allowed to continue until legislative approval could be obtained would endanger the public health or safety and expose the applicant to substantial financial risk.

(3) The department may not make an emergency grant if it determines that through the implementation of reasonable management practices, the applicant can forestall the risks to health or safety until the legislative approval can be obtained.

(4) The department shall inform the governor and the legislative finance committee of emergency grants that are awarded during the biennium."

Insert: "NEW SECTION. Section 9. Conrad emergency drinking water grant. There is appropriated to the department of commerce for a grant to the city of Conrad $100,000 from the interest earnings of the treasure state endowment special revenue account. The grant must be used for the city's drinking water system in order to move the pumping station. The city of Conrad may not receive the funds until it has satisfied the conditions described in [section 3(1)(a) and (1)(c) through (1)(e)]. The status of this project will be reviewed by the legislature as provided under [section 7]. The department shall disburse grant funds on a reimbursement basis as eligible project expenses are incurred."

SPECIAL ORDERS OF THE DAY

Sergeant-at-Arms Ahner escorted the Senate negotiation team into the House Chambers.

Senator Grosfield challenged the House to match or beat the Senate's contribution to the Big Brothers and Big Sisters organization. The House "graciously" accepted the challenge to collect money, and did, in fact, beat the amount collected by the Senate. Negotiations for the remainder of the "missing" items from both houses were carried out to the satisfaction of both parties. Trophies were given to the Senate as the winners of the first half of the Senate/House basketball game, and to the House for the second half of the game, with the House basketball team receiving the rightful "game" trophy back along with the other confiscated items.

Sergeant-at-Arms Ahner escorted the Senate negotiation team from the House Chambers.
