"69-8-201. Public utility -- transition to customer choice -- waiver. (1) A public utility shall, except as provided in this section, adhere to the following deadlines:

(a) ~~On or before July 1, 1998, all~~ All customers with individual loads greater than 1,000 kilowatts and for loads of the same customer with individual loads at a meter greater than 300 kilowatts that aggregate to 1,000 kilowatts or greater must have the opportunity to choose an electricity supplier.

(b) Subject to subsection (2), and as soon as is administratively feasible but before July 1, 2002, all other public utility customers must have the opportunity to choose an electricity supplier.

(2) (a) Except as provided for in subsection (4), the commission may determine that additional time is necessary for customers identified in subsection (1)(b); however, the implementation of full customer choice may not be delayed beyond July 1, 2004.

(b) A determination by the commission that additional time is necessary for subsection (1)(b) customers must be made at least 60 days in advance of the scheduled date and must be based on one or more of the following considerations:

(i) implementation would not be administratively feasible;

(ii) implementation would materially affect the reliability of the electric system; or

(iii) Montana customers or electricity suppliers would be disadvantaged due to lack of a competitive electricity supply market.

(3) The commission shall designate the public utility or one or more default suppliers to provide regulated default service for those small customers of a public utility that are not being served by a competitive electricity supplier and those customers who elect to receive service from the default supplier. ~~The transition advisory committee shall review and address the need for continued default supply service and make recommendation to the 57th legislature.~~

(4) Except as provided in 69-5-101, 69-5-102, and 69-5-104 through 69-5-112, ~~and 69-8-402~~; a public utility currently doing business in Montana as part of a single integrated multistate operation, no portion of which lies within the basin of the Columbia River, may:

~~(a) defer compliance with this chapter until a time that the public utility can reasonably implement customer choice in the state of the public utility's primary service territory, except that the public utility shall file a transition plan pursuant to 69-8-202 to provide transition to customer choice on or before July 1, 2002, and must have completed the transition period to customer choice by July 1, 2006; and~~

~~(b) petition the commission to delay the public utility's transition plan filing until July 1, 2004.~~

(5) Upon a request from a public utility with fewer than 50 customers, the commission shall waive compliance

(a) subsection (1)(a) of [section 1 of this act], amending 69-8-201, must read as follows:

"(a) Subject to subsection (6), all customers with individual loads greater than 1,000 kilowatts and for loads of the same customer with individual loads at a meter greater than 300 kilowatts that aggregate to 1,000 kilowatts or greater must have the opportunity to choose an electricity supplier."

(b) There must be inserted in [section 1 of this act] a subsection (6) that reads as follows:

"(6) A customer who chose an electricity supplier prior to July 1, 2001, may make an election prior to October 1, 2001, to receive the customer's electricity from the default supplier. A customer who chose an electricity supplier prior to July 1, 2001, and who chooses to receive the customer's electricity from the default supplier pursuant to this subsection is bound by the election and may not again elect to choose an electricity supplier other than the default supplier."

(2) If House Bill No. 474 and [this act] are both passed and approved, then subsection (3) of [section 1 of this act] must read as follows:

"(3) The commission shall designate the public utility or one or more default suppliers to provide regulated default service for those small customers of a public utility that are not being served by a competitive supplier and those customers who elect to receive service from the default supplier. A customer who elects to receive service from the default supplier may only use the electricity for consumptive purposes and shall enter into a contract with the default supplier that prohibits the customer from remarketing the electricity."

(3) If House Bill No. 640 and [this act] are both passed and approved, then:

(a) subsection (3) of [section 1 of this act] must read as follows:

"(3) The commission shall designate the public utility or one or more default suppliers to provide regulated default service for those small customers of a public utility that are not being served by a competitive supplier and those customers who elect to receive service from the default supplier. Except as provided in [section 2(2) of House Bill No. 640], a customer who elects to receive service from the default supplier may only use the electricity for consumptive purposes and shall enter into a contract with the default supplier that prohibits the customer from remarketing the electricity."

(b) There must be inserted into [section 1 of this act] a subsection (6) that reads as follows:

"(6) A customer who chose an electricity supplier prior to July 1, 2001, may make an election prior to October 1, 2001, to receive electricity from the default supplier."

(c) Subsection (1)(a) of [section 1 of this act] must read as follows:

"(a) Subject to subsection (6), all customers with individual loads greater than 1,000 kilowatts and for loads of the same customer with individual loads at a meter greater than 300 kilowatts that aggregate to 1,000 kilowatts or greater must have the opportunity to choose an electricity supplier.""
