

HOUSE BILL NO. 404
INTRODUCED BY D. BROWN

A BILL FOR AN ACT ENTITLED: "AN ACT REQUIRING A CURRENT OR FORMER EMPLOYER TO PROVIDE A REQUESTING LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCY WITH EMPLOYMENT INFORMATION RELATING TO A CURRENT OR FORMER EMPLOYEE SEEKING A PEACE OFFICER POSITION WITH THE AGENCY; AND PROVIDING LIMITED IMMUNITY FROM CIVIL DAMAGES FOR PRIVATE EMPLOYERS."

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MONTANA:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. Law enforcement agency request that employer or former employer provide information on applicant for peace officer position. (1) A current or former employer shall, upon request of a law enforcement agency, provide the following information, if available, to the law enforcement agency regarding a current or former employee who is an applicant for a peace officer position with the law enforcement agency:

(a) the date on which employment began and the termination date if the individual is no longer employed by the employer;

(b) the compensation provided the individual;

(c) an application for employment submitted to the employer;

(d) the individual's performance evaluations and disciplinary action;

(e) a record of the individual's absences and attendance;

(f) a statement whether the employer would hire the individual if the individual were applying for a position and if the employer would not hire the individual, the reason why, except as provided in 39-2-801; and

(g) if the individual is no longer employed by the employer, the reason why and whether the individual left voluntarily or was terminated by the employer, except as provided in 39-2-801.

(2) The request must be in writing, presented to the employer in person by an employee of the law enforcement agency or of a law enforcement agency authorized by the requesting agency to present the request, and contain the applicant's signed and notarized consent to the employer's release of the information.

(3) The law enforcement agency may use the information to assist in determining the suitability of an applicant for employment as a peace officer.

(4) The law enforcement agency shall keep the information confidential, except that it may provide the information to another law enforcement agency to which the individual applies for a position as a peace officer, which shall also keep the information confidential.

(5) A private employer who discloses information about a current or former employee under this section is not liable for civil damages for the disclosure or any consequences related to the disclosure unless the employer knowingly, purposely, or negligently disclosed information that was false. For the purposes of this section, the definitions of knowingly, purposely, and negligently are those contained in 45-2-101.

(6) As used in this section, the following definitions apply:

(a) "Employer" includes a private employer, the state, and any local government or subdivision of the state.

(b) "Law enforcement agency" has the meaning provided in 7-32-201.

(c) "Peace officer" has the meaning provided in 45-2-101.

NEW SECTION. Section 2. Codification instruction. [Section 1] is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 7, chapter 32, and the provisions of Title 7 apply to [section 1].
