(2) The notice and an opportunity for a hearing and any judicial appeal must be conducted as provided in Title 2, chapter 4, parts 6 and 7."

Insert: "NEW SECTION. Section 6. Criteria for modification of license. (1) A new alternative livestock ranch license may not be issued in this state.

(2) An application for an alternative livestock ranch license modification may be denied in its entirety or issued with stipulations if necessary to prevent public safety hazards or significant negative impacts to Montana's wildlife resources. Denial of an application or stipulations attached to a license modification must be based on one or more of the following potential impacts attributed to the physical location of the alternative livestock ranch:

(a) substantial loss or destruction of critical seasonal game animal habitat or habitat of federally designated threatened or endangered species under the Endangered Species Act of 1973, 16 U.S.C. 1531, et seq., including but not limited to critical breeding, birthing, rearing, and wintering areas;

(b) blockage or disruption of major traditional seasonal migration corridors or major travel routes;

(c) an unacceptable threat of introduction or transmission of serious diseases or parasites to native wildlife populations, as determined by the state veterinarian appointed pursuant to 81-1-301;

(d) an unacceptable threat of escape of alternative livestock and establishment of feral populations that would result in habitat damage or competition with or genetic hybridization of native wildlife populations.

(3) The denial of an application for license modification or the issuance of a license modification with stipulations must be based on substantive and credible evidence.

(4) An application for a license modification may not be for the purpose of charging a fee for the harvest of alternative livestock.

(5) If the department determines that it will propose to deny an application for a license modification or issue a license modification with stipulations, the applicant must be given an opportunity to make changes to the application within 30 days of receipt of the department's written determination in order to mitigate or correct any problems or deficiencies. The department shall reconsider the application with the proposed changes within 30 days of receipt of changes to the application before granting, proposing to deny, or proposing to issue a license modification with stipulations.

(6) (a) An applicant may request that the alternative livestock advisory council review a department proposal to deny an application for a license modification or to issue a license modification with stipulations by petitioning the alternative livestock advisory council for review within 10 days of the department's proposed decision. The alternative livestock advisory council shall issue a recommendation to the commission to either grant the license modification, propose to deny the license modification, or issue the license modification with stipulations.

(b) Upon receipt of the alternative livestock advisory council's recommendation pursuant to subsection (6)(a), the commission shall decide whether to grant the license modification, propose to deny the license modification, or issue the license modification with stipulations. The commission decision then becomes the department's proposed decision, subject to an opportunity for hearing pursuant to 87-4-428.

(7) The department may establish by rule additional criteria for license modifications."
