Section 4. Transfer of structured settlement payment right -- conditions. A direct or indirect transfer of a structured settlement payment right is not effective and a structured settlement obligor or annuity issuer is not required to make a payment directly or indirectly to a transferee of a structured settlement payment right unless a final court order or order of a responsible administrative authority has approved the transfer in advance based on written findings by the court or responsible administrative authority that:

- (1) the transfer is in the best interest of the payee, taking into account the welfare and support of the payee's dependents, if any;
- (2) the payee has been advised in writing by the transferee to seek independent professional advice regarding the transfer and either has received independent professional advice or knowingly waived independent professional advice in writing; and
- (3) the transfer does not contravene any applicable statute or the order of any court or other government authority.

Section 5. Obligations after transfer. After the transfer of a structured settlement payment right pursuant to [sections 1 through 12]:

- (1) the structured settlement obligor and the annuity issuer are discharged and released from liability for the transferred payments to all parties except to the transferee;

- (a) if the transfer contravenes the terms of the structured settlement for any tax incurred by the structured settlement obligor or annuity issuer as a consequence of the transfer; and
  - (b) for any other liability or cost, including reasonable costs and attorney fees, arising:
    - (i) from compliance by the structured settlement obligor and annuity issuer with the order of the court or responsible administrative authority; or
    - (ii) as a consequence of the transferee's failure to comply with [sections 1 through 12]; and
  - (3) neither the structured settlement obligor nor the annuity issuer may be required to divide a periodic payment between a payee and a transferee or assignee or between two or more transferees or assignees.

Section 6. Additional transfers. After the transfer of a structured settlement payment right pursuant to [sections 1 through 12], any further transfer by the payee is subject to all of the requirements of [sections 1 through 12].

Section 7. Jurisdiction -- notice. (1) A transferee may apply under [sections 1 through 12] for approval of a transfer of a structured settlement payment right:

- (a) in the county in which the payee resides;
- (b) in the county in which the structured settlement obligor or the annuity issuer maintains a principal place of business; or
- (c) in any court or before any responsible administrative authority that approved the structured settlement agreement.

(2) Not less than 20 days prior to a scheduled hearing on an application for approval of a transfer of a structured settlement payment right under [section 4], the transferee shall file with the court or responsible administrative authority and serve on all interested parties a notice of the proposed transfer and the application for an authorized transfer. The notice must include the following:

- (a) a copy of the transferee's application;
- (b) a copy of the transfer agreement;
- (c) a copy of the disclosure statement required under [section 3];
- (d) a listing of each of the payee's dependents, if any, together with the age of each dependent;
- (e) notification that any interested party is entitled to support, oppose, or otherwise respond to the transferee's application either in person or by counsel by submitting written comments to the court or responsible administrative authority or by participating in the hearing; and

(f) notification of the time and the place of the hearing and notification of the manner in which and the time by which written responses to the application must be filed. The filing deadline may not be less than 15 days after the transferee's notice has been served.

Section 8. Waiver not allowed. A payee may not waive the provisions of [sections 1 through 12].

Section 9. Disputes -- entry of judgment. (1) A transfer agreement entered into on or after [the effective date of this act] by a payee who resides in this state must provide that disputes under the transfer agreement, including a claim that the payee has breached the agreement, must be determined in this state under the laws of this state.

(2) A transfer agreement may not authorize the transferee or any other party to confess judgment or consent to entry of judgment against the payee.

Section 10. Contingent payment conditions. A transfer of a structured settlement payment right may not extend to a payment that is contingent upon the life of a payee unless prior to the date on which the payee signs the transfer agreement the transferee has established and agreed to maintain procedures reasonably satisfactory to the annuity issuer and the structured settlement obligor for:

- (1) periodically confirming the payee's survival; and
- (2) giving the annuity issuer and the structured settlement obligor prompt written notice upon the payee's death.

Section 11. Responsibility for compliance -- liability. (1) Compliance with the requirements in [section 3] and fulfillment of the conditions in [section 4] are the sole responsibility of the transferee in any transfer of a structured settlement payment right. Neither the structured settlement obligor nor the annuity issuer bears responsibility for or liability arising from noncompliance with [section 3] or failure to fulfill the conditions of [section 4].

(2) A payee who proposes to make a transfer of a structured settlement payment right may not incur a penalty, forfeit an application fee or other payment, or otherwise incur any liability to the proposed transferee or any assignee based on a failure of a transfer agreement to satisfy the conditions of [sections 1 through 12].

Section 12. Construction. [Sections 1 through 12] may not be construed to authorize a transfer of a structured settlement payment right in contravention of any law or to imply that any transfer under a transfer agreement entered into prior to [the effective date of this act] is valid or invalid.

Section 13. Applicability. [This act] applies to any transfer of structured settlement payment rights under a transfer agreement executed on or after October 1, 2005.
