(3) (a) An eligible taxpayer participating in the program shall elect to participate under either subsection (3)(b) or (3)(c). (vi) the taxpayer may file a claim for refund or credit with respect to the tax year as provided in Title 15, chapter 30 or 31, but if the department denies the claim, the taxpayer may not file an appeal until the department issues a final determination with respect to the transactions at issue or the earlier of the date that is:

(b) waiver of penalties is conditioned on the taxpayer's full compliance with the terms of the agreement;

(c) if the taxpayer fails to comply with any term of the agreement, any waiver of penalties is void and the total amount of tax, interest, and all penalties are due and payable on notice and demand by the department.

(5) The penalty relief provided in this section is not available with respect to any portion of an underpayment of Montana income tax that is not paid to the department and that is attributable to a tax avoidance transaction. After March 31, 2006, the department may, with respect to the difference between the amount shown on an amended return filed by an eligible taxpayer and the correct amount of tax:

(a) issue a deficiency assessment;

(b) impose penalties; and

(c) initiate criminal action.

(6) For the purpose of improving state tax administration, the department may in addition to taking any other action authorized under any other provision of law or [sections 1 through 9] inquire into the facts and circumstances related to the use of tax avoidance transactions by eligible taxpayers who participate in the program. Taxpayers shall cooperate fully with inquiries described in this subsection, and any waiver of penalty provided in this section is conditioned on that cooperation. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, if an otherwise eligible taxpayer fails to fully cooperate in an inquiry described in this subsection, the department may assess any penalties that may apply.

(7) The department may waive all or any portion of any penalty imposed by [section 3, 4, 5, 6, or 7] if waiving the penalty would promote compliance with the requirements of the program and effective tax administration.

In the case of married taxpayers, each spouse is entitled to a reduction, not in excess of $3,000, for the spouses' contributions to the accounts. Spouses may jointly elect to treat half of the total contributions made by the spouses as being made by each spouse. The reduction in adjusted gross income under this subsection applies only with respect to contributions to an account of which the account owner, as defined in 15-62-103, is the taxpayer, the taxpayer's spouse, or the taxpayer's child or stepchild if the taxpayer's child or stepchild is a Montana resident. The provisions of subsection ~~(1)(e)~~ (1)(d) do not apply with respect to withdrawals of contributions that reduced adjusted gross income.
