"I do solemnly swear that I will support, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of Montana and that I will discharge the duties of my office as a member of the Sixtieth Legislature, with Fidelity so help me God."

Secretary of State Johnson informed the members of the House of Representatives that he had been advised that all oaths of office had been signed and received. These were presented to Chief Justice Gray for her acknowledgment and then filed in the Secretary of State's office.

Secretary of State Johnson called for nominations for Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Representative Mike Lange nominated the Honorable Scott Sales, House District 68, to be Speaker of the House.

Representative John Parker moved the nominations be closed.

Motion carried unanimously.

Secretary Johnson declared that Representative Sales had been duly elected Speaker of the House of Representatives for the 60th Legislature. Speaker Sales was escorted to his chair on the Rostrum. Speaker Sales gave brief remarks and introduced his family.

Representative Sales moved the following be nominated as officers of the House of Representative for the 60th Legislature:

Chief Clerk - Marilyn Miller
Sergeant-at-Arms - Nancy Clark

The House officers were unanimously elected.

Representative Lange moved that Representative Debby Barrett be nominated as Speaker Pro-Tem of the House of Representatives.

HOUSE JOURNAL
FIRST LEGISLATIVE DAY - JANUARY 3, 2007

Representative Debby Barrett was unanimously elected as Speaker Pro Tem.

The House officers were unanimously elected as follows:

Representative Mike Lange, Majority Leader; Representative John Parker, Minority Leader; Representative Gary Maclaren, Republican Whip; Representative Tom McGillvray, Republican Whip; Representative Margaret Campbell, Democratic Whip and Representative Dave McAlpin, Democratic Whip.

Speaker Sales recognized House Minority Leader, John Parker who then spoke to the House on behalf of the Minority.

Representative Lange moved that the House rules contained in House Resolution No. 1 be adopted as the temporary House operating rules of the 60th Legislature.

Representative Bob Bergren made a substitute motion which stated:

Substitute motion: Amend the motion to adopt HR 1 as temporary operating rules of the House with the following change:

H10-20. Speaker's duties. (1) The Speaker is the presiding officer of the House, with authority for administration, order, decorum, and the interpretation and enforcement of rules in all House deliberations.

(2) The Speaker shall see that all members conduct themselves in a civil manner in accordance with accepted standards of parliamentary conduct. The Speaker may, when necessary, order the Sergeant-at-Arms to clear the aisles and seat the members of the House so that business may be conducted in an orderly manner.

(3) Signs, placards, or other objects of a similar nature are not permitted in the rooms, lobby, gallery, or on the floor of the House. The Speaker may order the galleries, lobbies, or hallway cleared in case of disturbance or disorderly conduct.

(4) The Speaker shall appoint and may remove the members of all standing and select committees not otherwise specified by law or rule. Prior to making committee assignments, the Speaker shall take into consideration the recommendations of the minority leader for minority committee assignments and the appointment of the minority vice chairmen. For all standing committees other than the Rules Committee, the party division on the committees must be the same as the party division on Senate standing committees. For the Rules Committee, the Speaker shall determine the total number of members and the party division, but each party shall appoint its own members. The Speaker may appoint an additional at-large member to the Rules Committee from either party.

~~(4)~~(5) The Speaker shall sign all necessary certifications by the House, including enrolled bills and resolutions, journals (section 5-11-201, MCA), subpoenas, and payrolls.

~~(5)~~(6) The Speaker shall arrange the agendas for second and third readings each legislative day after good faith consultation with the House Democratic Leader and the House Republican Leader. Representatives may amend the agendas as provided in H40-130.

~~(6)~~(7) The Speaker is the chief officer of the House, with authority for all House employees. The Speaker may seek the advice and counsel of the Legislative Administration Committee regarding employees.

~~(7)~~(8) The Speaker may name any member to perform the duties of the chair. If the House is not in session and the Speaker pro tempore is not available, the Speaker shall name a member who shall call the House to order and preside during the Speaker's absence.

~~(8)~~(9) Upon request of the House Leader of the opposite party, the Speaker will submit a request for a fiscal note on any bill.
