Section 2-9-305, MCA, is amended to read: 16 "2-9-305. Immunization, defense, and indemnification of employees. (1) It is the purpose of this 17 section to provide for the immunization, defense, and indemnification of public officers and employees civilly sued 18 for their actions taken within the course and scope of their employment. 19 (2) In any noncriminal action brought against any employee of a state, county, city, town, or other 20 governmental entity for a negligent act, error, or omission, including alleged violations of civil rights pursuant to 21 42 U.S.C. 1983, or other actionable conduct of the employee committed while acting within the course and scope 22 of the employee's office or employment, the governmental entity employer, except as provided in subsection (6), 23 shall defend the action on behalf of the employee and indemnify the employee. 24 (3) Upon receiving service of a summons and complaint in a noncriminal action against him an 25 employee, the employee shall give written notice to his the employee's supervisor requesting that a defense to 26 the action be provided by the governmental entity employer. If the employee is an elected state official or other 27 employee having no who does not have a supervisor, the employee shall give notice of the action to the legal 28 officer or agency of the governmental entity defending the entity in legal actions of that type. Except as provided 29 in subsection (6), the employer shall offer a defense to the action on behalf of the employee. The defense may 30 consist of a defense provided directly by the employer. The employer shall notify the employee, within 15 days Legislative - 22 - after receipt of notice, whether a direct defense will be provided. If the employer refuses or is unable to provide a direct defense, the defendant employee may retain other counsel. Except as provided in subsection (6), the employer shall pay all expenses relating to the retained defense and pay any judgment for damages entered in the action that may be otherwise payable under this section.

(4) In any noncriminal action in which a governmental entity employee is a party defendant, the employee shall must be indemnified by the employer for any money judgments or legal expenses, including attorney fees either incurred by the employee or awarded to the claimant, or both, to which the employee may be subject as a result of the suit unless the employee's conduct falls within the exclusions provided in subsection (6).

9 (5) Recovery against a governmental entity under the provisions of parts 1 through 3 of this chapter 10 constitutes a complete bar to any action or recovery of damages by the claimant, by reason of the same subject 11 matter, against the employee whose negligence or wrongful act, error, or omission, or other actionable conduct 12 gave rise to the claim. In any such an action against a governmental entity, the employee whose conduct gave 13 rise to the suit is immune from liability by reasons of the same subject matter if the governmental entity 14 acknowledges or is bound by a judicial determination that the conduct upon which the claim is brought arises out 15 of the course and scope of the employee's employment, unless the claim constitutes an exclusion provided in 16 (b) through (d) of subsection (6) subsections (6)(b) through (6)(d).

(6) In a noncriminal action in which a governmental entity employee is a party defendant, the employee may not be defended or indemnified by the employer for any money judgments or legal expenses, including attorney fees, to which the employee may be subject as a result of the suit if a judicial determination is made that:
(a) the conduct upon which the claim is based constitutes oppression, fraud, or malice, or for any other reason does not arise out of the course and scope of the employee's employment;

(b) the conduct of the employee constitutes a criminal offense as defined in Title 45, chapters 4 through 7;

(c) the employee compromised or settled the claim without the consent of the government entityemployer; or 26 (d) the employee failed or refused to cooperate reasonably in the defense of the case.

(7) If no a judicial determination has not been made applying the exclusions provided in subsection (6), the governmental entity employer may determine whether those exclusions apply. However, if there is a dispute as to whether the exclusions of subsection (6) apply and the governmental entity employer concludes that it should clarify its obligation to the employee arising under this section by commencing a declaratory judgment
