-service of the armed forces of the United States;

- the spouses or children of residents of Montana who have been declared to be prisoners of war or missing in action; or

- the spouse or children of a Montana national guard member who was killed or died as a result of injury, disease, or other disability incurred in the line of duty while serving on state active duty;

- waive tuition charges for qualified survivors of Montana firefighters or peace officers killed in the course and scope of employment. For purposes of this subsection, a qualified survivor is a person who meets the entrance requirements at the state university or college of the person's choice and is the surviving spouse or child of any of the following who were killed in the course and scope of employment:

- a paid or volunteer member of a municipal or rural fire department;

- a law enforcement officer as defined in 7-32-201; or

- a full-time highway patrol officer.

- waive tuition for up to 5,000 credits each academic year in accordance with the Montana national guard education benefit program, which the department of military affairs is authorized to establish. The waivers provided for in this subsection (2)(e) are intended to be available for up to 5 years after the person qualifies.

- designate as residents, for purposes of the rate of tuition to be charged students attending community colleges and units of the university system, members of the Montana national guard who are not residents of Montana but who are active members of a national guard unit in Montana and are participating in the national guard education services program. (Terminates June 30, 2011--sec. 2, Ch. 27, L. 2007.)
