includes off-reservation Indians and because those Indians require assistance to coordinate their affairs with various tribal groups and federal agencies where they have no official recognition;

(8) the state and the tribes working together in a government-to-government relationship and engaging in compacts and other cooperative agreements for the benefit of Indian and non-Indian residents will promote economic development, environmental protection, education, social services support, and enduring good will;

(a) maintain effective tribal-state communications;

(10) the ~~coordinator~~ state director of Indian affairs shall endeavor to assist tribes to seek agreements between the state and tribes and to work toward a consensus among the tribes and other parties on shared goals and principles."

(e) make recommendations for the alleviation of those problems and issues;

- (f) serve the Montana delegation in the federal congress as an adviser and intermediary in the field of Indian affairs;
- (g) act as a liaison for representative Indian organizations and groups, public and private, whenever the state ~~coordinator's~~ director's support is solicited by tribal governmental entities;
- (h) serve on the state-tribal economic development commission established in 90-1-131;

- (j) hire, with the concurrence of the other members of the state-tribal economic development commission, a tribal business center coordinator and a federal grants coordinator, and subsequently provide administrative support for both positions.

(3) All executive and legislative agencies of state government may within the area of their expertise and authority provide assistance to tribal councils or their official designees requesting assistance on any matter relating to education, health, natural resources, and economic development on Indian reservation lands."

Section 13. Name change -- directions to code commissioner. In any legislation enacted by the 2009 legislature that refers to the state coordinator of Indian affairs, the code commissioner is directed to change the term to state director of Indian affairs.
