(1) As part of or as a condition under a sentence imposed under the provisions of this title, the court shall, by including the costs of counsel in the court's judgment, require a convicted defendant to pay the costs of counsel assigned to represent the defendant as follows, except as provided in subsections (2) and (3):

(a) in every misdemeanor case, ~~$150~~ $250; and

(b) in every felony case, ~~$500~~ $800.

(2) Costs must be limited to costs incurred by the office of state public defender, provided for in 47-1-201, for providing the defendant with counsel in the criminal proceeding. If the criminal proceeding includes a jury trial or a justice's court trial, ~~counsel assigned by~~ the office of state public defender shall file with the court a statement of the hours spent on the case and the costs and expenses incurred ~~and, except as provided in subsection (3), the court shall require the defendant to pay the costs of counsel and other costs and expenses as reflected in the statement.~~ In any proceeding for the determination of whether a defendant is or will be able to pay the costs of counsel, the court shall question the defendant as to the defendant's ability to pay those costs and shall inform the defendant that purposely false or misleading statements by the defendant may result in criminal charges against the defendant.

(3) The court may not sentence a defendant to pay the costs for assigned counsel unless the defendant is or will be able to pay them. In determining the amount and method of payment of costs, the court shall take into account the hours spent on the case and the costs and expenses incurred, the financial resources of the defendant, and the nature of the burden that payment of costs will impose.

(4) A defendant who has been sentenced to pay costs may at any time petition the court that sentenced the defendant for remission of the payment of costs or of any unpaid portion of the costs. If it appears to the satisfaction of the court that payment of the amount due will impose manifest hardship on the defendant or the defendant's immediate family, the court may remit all or part of the amount due in costs or modify the method of payment."
