WHEREAS, the 2007 Legislature passed House Joint Resolution No. 16, urging that revision of the criminal codes within Title 87 of the Montana Code Annotated be given priority; and

WHEREAS, House Joint Resolution No. 16 noted that practitioners, judges, and citizens find that the criminal codes intertwined within the fish and game laws in Title 87 are difficult to read, understand, and prosecute; and

WHEREAS, House Joint Resolution No. 16 directed that revision of the Title 87 criminal code should not include policy changes to current laws and should adhere to the intent of the legislatures that crafted the laws; and

WHEREAS, in 2008, the Director of Fish, Wildlife, and Parks appointed a Title 87 criminal code revision working group, consisting of Justices of the Peace, County Attorneys, an Assistant Attorney General, legal counsel and the enforcement administrator of the Department of Fish, Wildlife, and Parks, and legislative staff; and

WHEREAS, the working group met numerous times and spent countless hours crafting a revision that makes the Title 87 criminal code more understandable without making substantive or policy changes to present law; and

WHEREAS, revision of the fish and game criminal statutes will benefit the hunting and fishing public, magistrates, and prosecutors by codifying crimes and penalties in a separate chapter of Montana law, rather than being intertwined throughout Title 87.
