10 NEW SECTION. Section 3. Purpose. (1) The purpose of a benefit corporation is to create general
11 public benefit. This purpose is in addition to and may be a limitation on the corporation's purpose under 35-1-114
12 and any specific public benefit purpose set forth in the corporation's articles of incorporation in accordance with 13 subsection (2).

14 (2) In addition to the applicable provisions required under 35-1-216, the articles of incorporation of a
15 benefit corporation must contain the following statement: "This corporation is a benefit corporation." The articles
16 of incorporation of a benefit corporation may identify one or more specific public benefits as the purpose or 17 purposes of the benefit corporation. The identification of a specific public benefit under this subsection does not 18 limit the obligation of a benefit corporation to create general public benefit.

19 (3) The creation of general public benefit and one or more specific public benefits as provided in 20 subsections (1) and (2) is considered to be in the best interests of the benefit corporation.

21 (4) A benefit corporation may amend its articles of incorporation to add, amend, or delete the 22 identification of a specific public benefit as a purpose of the benefit corporation to create. The amendment is 23 effective only if the amendment is adopted by at least the minimum status vote.

24

26 provisions of Title 35, chapter 1, apply to all benefit corporations.

27 (2) The provisions of [sections 1 through 12] do not:

28 (a) imply that a contrary or different rule of law does or would apply to a business corporation that is not
29 a benefit corporation; or

30 (b) affect any provision of [sections 1 through 12] that does or would apply to a corporation that is not

1 a benefit corporation.

2

3 NEW SECTION. Section 5. Benefit corporation -- formation. A benefit corporation may be formed
4 in accordance with [sections 1 through 12]. The articles of incorporation must:

13 under similar circumstances.

14 (2) In discharging their respective duties and in considering the best interests of the benefit corporation,
15 the board of directors, committees of the board, and individual directors of a benefit corporation:

17 (i) the shareholders of the benefit corporation;

18 (ii) the employees and workforce of the benefit corporation and its subsidiaries and suppliers;

19 (iii) the interests of customers of the benefit corporation as beneficiaries of the general public benefit
20 purpose or any specific public benefit purpose of the benefit corporation;

27 (vii) the ability of the benefit corporation to accomplish its general public benefit purpose and any specific
28 public benefit purpose;

29 (b) may consider:

30 (i) the resources, intent, and conduct, including past, stated, and potential conduct, of any person

1 seeking to acquire control of the benefit corporation; and

2 (ii) any other pertinent factors or the interests of any other person or group; and

5 the benefit corporation has stated its intention to give priority to a specific public benefit purpose identified in the 6 articles of incorporation.

7 (3) In performing the duties of a director, a director may rely on information, opinions, reports, or 8 statements, including financial statements and other financial data, in each case prepared or presented by:

10 and competent in the matters presented;

11 (b) counsel, independent accountants, or other persons as to matters that the director believes to be 12 within those persons' professional or expert competence; or

13 (c) a committee of the board on which the director does not serve if the director believes the committee
14 merits confidence and if the director acts in good faith and without knowledge that would cause the director's
15 confidence in the committee to be unwarranted.

16 (4) A person who performs the duties of a director in accordance with [sections 1 through 12] is not liable
17 for monetary damages for any alleged failure:

18 (a) to discharge the person's obligations as a director; or

19 (b) of the benefit corporation to pursue or create general public benefit or a specific public benefit.

20 (5) In addition to the limitations provided in subsection (4), the liability of a director for monetary damages
21 may be eliminated or limited in a benefit corporation's articles of incorporation to the extent provided for in 22 35-1-216(2)(d).

23 (6) A director does not have a duty to a person who is a beneficiary of the general public benefit purpose
24 or a specific public benefit purpose of a benefit corporation arising from the status of the person as a beneficiary.

25
26 NEW SECTION. Section 7. Conversion to benefit corporation. (1) A corporation may become a
27 benefit corporation under [sections 1 through 12] by amending the corporation's articles of incorporation to include
28 a statement that the corporation is a benefit corporation. The amendment is effective only if it is adopted by at 29 least the minimum status vote. If the amendment is adopted, a shareholder of the corporation may require the 30 corporation to purchase at fair market value the shares owned by the shareholder as provided for in 35-1-827.

1 (2) If a corporation or other entity that is not a benefit corporation is a constituent corporation or entity
2 in a merger reorganization or is the acquired corporation or entity in an exchange reorganization and the surviving
3 corporation in the merger or exchange reorganization is to be a benefit corporation or the articles of incorporation
4 of the acquired corporation or entity are to be amended in the merger or exchange reorganization to provide that
5 the newly formed corporation will be a benefit corporation, the reorganization is effective only if it is approved by 6 the newly formed corporation or other entity by at least the minimum status vote.

7 (3) If any other entity is a party to a merger reorganization and the surviving corporation in the
8 reorganization is to be a benefit corporation, the reorganization is effective only if the reorganization is approved
9 by the other entity by at least the minimum status vote.

16 to [sections 1 through 12] by deleting from the benefit corporation's articles of incorporation the statement and
17 identification of public benefits required under [section 5]. The amendment is effective only if the amendment is 18 adopted by at least the minimum status vote. If the amendment is adopted, a shareholder of the corporation may 19 require the corporation to purchase at fair market value the shares owned by the shareholder as provided for in 20 35-1-827.

21 (2) If a reorganization of a benefit corporation would terminate the status of the corporation as a benefit
22 corporation, the reorganization is effective only if the reorganization is approved by at least the minimum status
23 vote.

24 (3) If a benefit corporation is the converting corporation in a conversion, the conversion is effective only
25 if the conversion is approved by at least the minimum status vote.

26 (4) A sale, lease, conveyance, exchange, transfer, or other disposition of all or substantially all of the 27 assets of a benefit corporation, unless the transaction is in the usual and ordinary course of business of the 28 benefit corporation, is effective only if the transaction is approved by at least the minimum status vote. If a
29 transaction described in this subsection is not in the usual and ordinary course of business and is approved, a

2

3 NEW SECTION. Section 9. Officers -- duty -- limits. (1) Each officer of a benefit corporation shall

9 (ii) any of the interests or factors referred to in [section 6(2)].

10 (2) The consideration by an officer of interests and factors in the manner described in subsection (1)
11 does not constitute a violation of the duties of the officer.

12 (3) An officer is not liable for monetary damages under [sections 1 through 12] for:

13 (a) any action taken as an officer if the officer performed the duties of the position in compliance with this

29 benefit was created; and

30 (iv) any circumstances that may have hindered the creation by the benefit corporation of general public

1 benefit or any specific public benefit;

15 specific public benefit purpose.
