65th Legislature SB0240.02

NEW SECTION. Section 2. Requirement to inform Montana's congressional delegation. Upon passage and approval of [this act], the executive director of the legislative services division is directed to send copies of [this act] to Montana's congressional delegation.

NEW SECTION. Section 3. Contingent effectiveness. (1) If the penalties for reimbursement of individual major medical policy or medicare supplement premiums under section 4980D of the Internal Revenue Code are repealed or amended to permit the state employees benefits group to allow reimbursement under [section 1(2)(c)(i)], then [section 1(2)(c)(i)] of this act is effective. The department of administration shall inform the code commissioner and certify when the penalties are repealed or amended and if the state employees benefits group may reimburse legislator members as provided in [section 1(2)(c)(i)].

(2) If the prohibition against financial and other incentives for reimbursement of medicare premiums under 42 CFR, part 411, subpart E, and 42 U.S.C. 1395y(b) is repealed or amended to permit the state employees benefits group to allow reimbursement under [section 1(2)(c)(ii)], then [section 1(2)(c)(ii)] of this act is effective. The department of administration shall inform the code commissioner and certify when the prohibition is repealed or amended and if the state employees benefits group may reimburse legislator members as provided in [section 1(2)(c)(ii)].

NEW SECTION. Section 4. Effective dates. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), [this act] is effective on passage and approval.

(2) [Section 1], in whole or in part, [SECTION 1(2)(C)] is effective when the department of administration certifies to the code commissioner that either or both contingencies in [section 3] have occurred.

NEW SECTION. Section 5. Retroactive applicability. [This act] applies retroactively, within the meaning of 1-2-109, to any reimbursement legislators are entitled to beginning January 1, 2017.
