If the online tool allows the user to modify or delete a direction at all times, a direction regarding disclosure using an online tool overrides a contrary direction by the user in a will, trust, power of attorney, or other record.

(2) If a user has not used an online tool to give direction under subsection (1) or if the custodian has not provided an online tool, the user may allow or prohibit in a will, trust, power of attorney, or other record, disclosure to a fiduciary of some or all of the user's digital assets, including the content of electronic communications sent or received by the user.

(3) A user's direction under subsection (1) or (2) overrides a contrary provision in a terms-of-service agreement that does not require the user to act affirmatively and distinctly from the user's assent to the terms of service.

Section 4. Terms-of-service agreement. (1) [Sections 1 through 17] do not change or impair a right of a custodian or a user under a terms-of-service agreement to access and use digital assets of the user.

(2) [Sections 1 through 17] do not give a fiduciary or designated recipient any new or expanded rights other than those held by the user for whom, or for whose estate, the fiduciary or designated recipient acts or represents.

Section 5. Procedure for disclosing digital assets. (1) When disclosing digital assets of a user under [sections 1 through 17], the custodian may at its sole discretion:

- (a) grant a fiduciary or designated recipient full access to the user's account;
- (b) grant a fiduciary or designated recipient partial access to the user's account sufficient to perform the tasks with which the fiduciary or designated recipient is charged; or
- (c) provide a fiduciary or designated recipient a copy in a record of any digital asset that, on the date the custodian received the request for disclosure, the user could have accessed if the user were alive and had full capacity and access to the account.

(2) A custodian may assess a reasonable administrative charge for the cost of disclosing digital assets under [sections 1 through 17].

(3) A custodian need not disclose under [sections 1 through 17] a digital asset deleted by a user.

(4) If a user directs or a fiduciary requests a custodian to disclose under [sections 1 through 17] some, but not all, of the user's digital assets, the custodian need not disclose the assets if segregation of the assets would impose an undue burden on the custodian. If the custodian believes the direction or request imposes an undue burden, the custodian or fiduciary may seek an order from the court to disclose:

- (a) a subset limited by date of the user's digital assets;
- (b) all of the user's digital assets to the fiduciary or designated recipient;
- (c) none of the user's digital assets; or
- (d) all of the user's digital assets to the court for review in camera.

Section 6. Disclosure of content of electronic communications of deceased user. If a deceased user consented or a court directs disclosure of the contents of electronic communications of the user, the custodian shall disclose to the personal representative of the estate of the user the content of an electronic

- (5) if requested by the custodian:
  - (a) a number, username, address, or other unique subscriber or account identifier assigned by the custodian to identify the user's account;
  - (b) evidence linking the account to the user; or
  - (c) a finding by the court that:
    - (i) the user had a specific account with the custodian, identifiable by the information specified in subsection (5)(a);
    - (ii) disclosure of the content of electronic communications of the user would not violate 18 U.S.C. 2701 et seq., as amended, 47 U.S.C. 222, as amended, or other applicable law;

Section 11. (2) Unless otherwise ordered by the court or directed by the user, a custodian shall disclose to a conservator the catalogue of electronic communications sent or received by a protected person and any digital assets, other than the content of electronic communications, in which the protected person has a right or interest if the conservator gives the custodian:
