13 order a termination of the parent-child legal relationship after the filing of a petition pursuant to this section
14 alleging the factual grounds for termination as provided for in subsection (2).

15 (2) Grounds for termination pursuant to this section exist when the parent of a child:

16 (a) is convicted of a felony in which sexual intercourse occurred or is a minor adjudicated a delinquent
17 youth because of an act that, if committed by an adult, would be a felony in which sexual intercourse occurred
18 and, as a result of the sexual intercourse, the child is born; or

22 (3) The court's order must state the reasons for the decision.

23 (4) The victim of the crime or act may file a petition pursuant to this section. If the victim is a minor, the 24 victim's parent or guardian may file a petition on the victim's behalf.

25 (5) The respondent to the petition has the right to counsel in all proceedings held pursuant to the petition.

26 (6) Before termination of the parent-child legal relationship may be ordered, the court shall determine

2 chapter 6, part 2, and Title 41, chapter 3, part 2, except the right of the child to inherit from the parent.

3 (b) An order or decree entered pursuant to this part may not disentitle a child to any benefit due to the 4 child from a third person, including but not limited to an Indian tribe, an agency, a state, or the United States.

5
6 NEW SECTION. Section 2. Service of process -- service by publication -- effect. (1) Except as

8 Procedure.

9 (2) If a person cannot be served personally or by certified mail, the person may be served by publication
10 as provided in [section 3]. Publication constitutes conclusive evidence of service, and a hearing must then 11 proceed at the time and date set, with or without the appearance of the person served by publication. During or 12 after the hearing, the court may issue an order that will adjudicate the interests of the person served by 13 publication.

14 (3) If the parent cannot be found prior to the hearings allowed by [section 1], the court may grant the

17
18 NEW SECTION. Section 3. Service by publication -- summons -- form. (1) Before service by 19 publication is authorized in a proceeding under [sections 1 through 3], the person filing the petition pursuant to 20 [section 1(4)] shall file with the court an affidavit stating that, after due diligence, the parent whose rights are 21 subject to termination cannot be identified or found and stating the diligent efforts made to identify, locate, and
22 serve the person. The affidavit is sufficient evidence of the diligence of any inquiry made by the person filing the 23 petition. The affidavit may be combined with another affidavit filed by the person filing the petition. Upon 24 complying with this subsection, the person filing the petition may obtain an order for the service to be made on 25 the party by publication. The order may be issued by either the judge or the clerk of the court.

26 (2) Service by publication must be made by publishing notice three times, once each week for 3
27 successive weeks:

28 (a) in a newspaper in a community in which the publication can reasonably be calculated to be seen by
29 the person whose parental rights are subject to termination, based on the last-known address or whereabouts,
30 if known, of the person if in the state of Montana; or

1 (b) if no last-known address exists, if the last-known address is outside Montana, or if the identity of the 2 person whose parental rights are subject to termination is unknown, in a newspaper in the county in which the

 4 a newspaper published in an adjoining county and having a general circulation in the county.

5 (3) Service by publication is complete on the date of the last publication required by subsection (2).

10 (ii) the initials of the child who is the subject of the proceedings;

11 (iii) the name of the person filing the petition pursuant to [section 1(4)];

12 (iv) the timeframe within which an interested person shall appear;

13 (v) a statement in general terms of the nature of the proceedings, including the date and place of birth
 14 of the child, the date and place of the hearing, and the phone number of the clerk of the court in which the hearing
 15 is scheduled; and

16 (vi) notification apprising the person served by publication that failure to appear at the hearing will 17 constitute a denial of interest in the child, which may result, without further notice of the proceeding or any 18 subsequent proceeding, in judgment by default being entered for the relief requested in the petition.
