5 COLLECTION ON UNSOLICITED LOANS; PROHIBITING REPORTING TO CREDIT AGENCIES REGARDING
6 UNSOLICITED LOANS; EXEMPTING CERTAIN LENDERS; AND ALLOWING FOR SUIT AND INJUNCTIONS."

7
8 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MONTANA:

9
10 NEW SECTION. Section 1. Unsolicited loan checks or transfers. (1) A person may not extend any 11 consumer credit by:

- 12 (a) making an unsolicited transfer of funds to the consumer's credit or asset account; or
- 13 (b) through the consumer's use of an unsolicited check, other negotiable instrument, access device or 14 other means of initiating an electronic fund transfer, or other similar instrument or device.

15 (2) A certificate, voucher, or other nonnegotiable instrument provided to a consumer in connection with 16 a solicitation for an extension of credit that has the appearance of a check or other negotiable instrument is not
17 an application or request for an extension of credit for purposes of this section.

18 (3) Any purported credit agreement entered into or debt purportedly incurred as a result of a violation
19 of subsection (1) is void and the consumer or cardholder may not be liable for and a person may not attempt to 20 collect:

- 21 (a) the principal amount sent or transferred to the consumer in violation of this section; or
- 22 (b) any interest, charge, fee, or penalty.

23 (4) Information relating the liability of a consumer alleged by a creditor to have been established in 24 violation of subsection (1) may not be reported to or received by any consumer reporting agency or included in 25 any consumer report.

26 (5) THIS SECTION DOES NOT APPLY TO A BANK, BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION, SAVINGS AND LOAN
27 ASSOCIATION, BANK HOLDING COMPANY, OR CREDIT UNION.

28 ~~(5)~~(6) (a) A violation of this section is an unfair trade practice and is a violation of Title 30, chapter 14,
29 part 1.

30 (b) A consumer subjected to an act prohibited by this section may seek an injunction to prohibit the

1 commission of additional acts prohibited by this section.

2

3 NEW SECTION. Section 2. Codification instruction. [Section 1] is intended to be codified as an
4 integral part of Title 31 and the provisions of Title 31 apply to [section 1].
