House convened at 1:00 p.m. Mr. Speaker presiding. Invocation by Representative T. Moore. Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag.

Roll Call. All members present, except Representative Berglee, excused. Quorum present.

Speaker Hertz ordered the House stand for a moment of silence in recognition of the passing of Representative Fitzgerald's mother.

Speaker Hertz addressed the House:

Members, before we get started today, I would like to address decorum during Introductions and Announcements. I have spoken with the Minority Leader, and we agree on the importance of following our rules of decorum to ensure that we have orderly debate and respect for others.

Introductions and Announcements should not be used to express personal or political opinions. While this body encourages vigorous debate on philosophical and political beliefs of its members within Order of Business #7, Second Reading of Bills, it is unacceptable to use recognition under Introductions and Announcements to express such beliefs.

Members, I would like to give you an example of how you might violate these rules:

Let's say today is National Applesauce Day and I would like to encourage everyone to enjoy a great bowl of applesauce. That is acceptable and probably should end right there. I should not go on to express my personal belief of why someone would take a perfectly good apple and turn it into a bowl of applesauce. Now I have offended many people, who like applesauce; but I also have gained some allies who love apples.

I could go on further explaining why I cannot stand applesauce myself. When I was a young child, someone put a disgusting tasting medicine into my applesauce. Due to that event in my life, I no longer eat this wonderful and nutritious bowl of applesauce. Now I have offended my mother, sorry mom- I will call you later today. It was not the disgusting medicine that you put in my applesauce. It was a texture thing.

So, as you can see, a simple announcement can turn into a significant issue and focus our attention away from the 66th Legislature. I am using a little bit of applesauce humor. So you will remember the process, and we can think of applesauce when we stand up at an inappropriate time.

I respect each and every one of your beliefs and opinions. They have a place, just not in our Introductions and Announcements.
