FISCAL ANALYSIS

Assumptions:

Department of Commerce (DOC)

- Section 7 of the bill states that the Coal Board may not make a new grant to a local government that is in violation of the provisions contained in the bill.
- The bill revises reporting requirements regarding the status of uncompleted TSEP projects to be compliant with 5-11-210, MCA. Section 8 of the bill states that the DOC may not recommend or prioritize projects submitted for funding from the Treasure State Endowment program (TSEP) by a local government that is in violation of the provisions contained in the bill.
- Commerce currently prepares a report on the status of the TSEP projects. Compliance with 5-11-210, MCA, will not require additional resources.

Department of Justice

- The Department of Justice does not anticipate additional fiscal impact from HB 200.

Other State Agencies

- No other state agencies anticipate a fiscal impact from the bill.
