HOUSE JOURNAL
FIFTEENTH LEGISLATIVE DAY - JANUARY 22, 2021

Insert: " means any medical or surgical service that seeks to surgically alter or remove healthy physical or anatomical characteristics or features that are typical for the individual's biological sex in order to instill or create physiological or anatomical characteristics that resemble a sex different from the individual's birth sex, including but not limited to genital or nongenital gender reassignment surgery performed for the purpose of assisting an individual with a gender transition.

- (5) "Gender transition" means the process in which an individual goes from identifying with and living as a gender that corresponds with the individual's biological sex to identifying with and living as a gender different than the individual's biological sex and may involve social, legal, or physical changes.
- (6) (a) "Gender transition procedures" means any medical or surgical service, including but not limited to physicians' services, inpatient and outpatient hospital services, or prescribed drugs related to gender transition, that seeks to alter or remove physical or anatomical characteristics or features that are typical for the individual's biological sex and to instill or create physiological or anatomical characteristics that resemble a sex different from the individual's birth sex.
- (b) Gender transition procedures include but are not limited to services that provide puberty-blocking drugs, cross-sex hormones, or other mechanisms to promote the development of feminizing or masculinizing features in the opposite sex, or genital or nongenital gender reassignment surgery performed for the purpose of assisting an individual with a gender transition.
- (c) Gender transition procedures do not include:
- (i) services to those born with a medically verifiable disorder of sex development, including an individual with external biological sex characteristics that are irresolvably ambiguous such as those born with 46, XX chromosomes with virilization, 46, XY chromosomes with undervirilization, or having both ovarian and testicular tissues;
- (ii) services provided when a physician has diagnosed a disorder of sexual development in which the physician has determined through genetic or biochemical testing that the individual does not have normal sex chromosome structure, sex steroid hormone production, or sex steroid hormone action for a biological male or a biological female;
- (iii) the treatment of an infection, injury, disease, or disorder that has been caused by or exacerbated by the performance of gender transition procedures, whether or not the gender transition procedure was performed in accordance with state or federal law; or
- (iv) a procedure undertaken because the individual suffers from a physical disorder, physical injury, or physical illness that would, as certified by a physician, place the individual in imminent danger of death or impairment of major bodily function unless surgery is performed.
- (7) "Genital gender reassignment surgery" includes but is not limited to the following surgical procedures when performed for the purpose of assisting an individual with a gender transition:
- (a) penectomy, orchiectomy, vaginoplasty, clitoroplasty, or vulvoplasty for biological male patients; or
- (b) hysterectomy/oophorectomy, reconstruction of the fixed part of the urethra with or without a metoidioplasty or a phalloplasty, vaginectomy, scrotoplasty, or implantation of erection or testicular prostheses for biologically female patients."

Following: line 28

Insert: " (9) "Nongenital gender reassignment surgery" includes but is not limited to the following surgical procedures when performed for the purposes of assisting an individual with a gender transition:

(a) augmentation mammoplasty, facial feminization surgery, liposuction, lipofilling, voice surgery, thyroid cartilage reduction, gluteal augmentation (implants), hair reconstruction, or aesthetic procedures for biologically male patients; or

(b) subcutaneous mastectomy, voice surgery, liposuction, lipofilling, pectoral implants, or aesthetic procedures for biologically female patients.

(10) "Puberty-blocking drugs" means the following drugs when used to delay or suppress pubertal development in children for the purpose of assisting an individual with a gender transition:

(a) gonadotropin-releasing hormone (GnRH) analogues or other synthetic drugs used in biological males to stop luteinizing hormone secretion and testosterone secretion; or

(b) synthetic drugs used in biological females to stop the production of estrogens and progesterone.

(11) "Sex", "birth sex", or "biological sex" refer to the biological indication of male or female as understood in the context of reproductive potential or capacity, including sex chromosomes, naturally occurring sex hormones, gonads, and nonambiguous internal and external genitalia present at birth, without regard to an individual's psychological, chosen, or subjective experience of gender."

(2) A person may assert an actual or threatened violation of [sections 1 through 5] as a claim or defense in a judicial or administrative proceeding and obtain compensatory damages, injunctive relief, declaratory relief, or any other appropriate relief.

HOUSE JOURNAL
FIFTEENTH LEGISLATIVE DAY - JANUARY 22, 2021

- (3) (a) Except as provided in subsection (3)(b), a person may not bring a claim for a violation of [sections 1 through 5] later than 2 years after the day the cause of action accrues.
- (b) A minor may bring a cause of action through a parent or next friend and may bring an action in the minor's own name upon reaching majority. The action must be commenced before the minor reaches 38 years of age.
- (4) An action under [sections 1 through 5] may be commenced and relief granted in a judicial proceeding regardless of whether the person commencing the action has sought or exhausted available administrative remedies.
- (5) In an action or proceeding to enforce a provision of [sections 1 through 5], a prevailing party who establishes a violation of [sections 1 through 5] is entitled to recover reasonable attorney fees.
- (6) The attorney general may bring an action to enforce compliance with [sections 1 through 5]. Nothing in [sections 1 through 5] may be construed to deny, impair, or otherwise affect a right or authority of the attorney general, the state of Montana, or an agency, officer, or employee of the state to institute or intervene in a proceeding."
