ANNOUNCEMENTS

Representative Windy Boy arose on a Point of Personal Privilege to state that he felt that the interruption of the discussion on the bill on Second Reading was not respectful. The determination of whether a discussion is on the bill or not should be vested with the Rules Committee.

Representative Noland arose on a Point of Personal Privilege to state that there is a protocol to follow when there is discussion on Second Reading and that protocol is to stay on the topic of the bill.

Representative Marler arose on a Point of Personal Privilege to state that she believed the interruption of discussion on Second Reading is inappropriate censorship if the chair believes that someone was off the topic of the bill.

Representative Keane arose on a Point of Personal Privilege to state that he believed that some have been told that they are off the topic of the bill because someone did not like what was being said.
