Sixty-Seventh Legislature
State Capitol

Dear President Blasdel and Speaker Galt:

As required by Montana Code Annotated § 3-1-1126, the Montana Judicial Standards Commission (Commission) submits this report to the legislature for the preceding biennium covering calendar years 2019 and 2020.

Article VII, Section 11, of the 1972 Montana Constitution directs the legislature to create a five-member Judicial Standards Commission to accept and consider complaints against Montana judicial officers. The 1973 legislature created the Commission and it is attached to the Montana Supreme Court for administrative purposes. Mont. Code Ann. § 3-1-1101 through -1126. The work, investigations, and recommendations of the Commission are independent of the Supreme Court. With few exceptions, all papers and proceedings before the Commission are confidential pursuant to Montana Code Annotated § 3-1-1105. Access to Commission records is limited to the Commission and staff.

The Commission's report to the sixty-sixth legislature (2019 session) showed 4 complaints were still pending at the close of 2018. Of those pending complaints, all 4 complaints were dismissed.

SENATE JOURNAL
NINTH LEGISLATIVE DAY - JANUARY 14, 2021

As shown in the attached spreadsheet, 50 complaints were filed against judicial officers in calendar year 2019. After consideration and investigation, 44 of those complaints were dismissed, 3 of those complaints resulted in a 30-day suspension without pay to the same judge; 1 resulted in a Stipulation for Public Reprimand, 1 resulted in a letter of admonition to the judge, and 1 resulted in a judge retiring. There was 1 complaint pending as of December 31, 2019. The pending complaint was dismissed in January 2020.

For calendar year 2020, 42 complaints were filed against judicial officers. After consideration and investigation, 36 complaints were dismissed, 1 resulted in a judge retiring, and 1 was a result of the same judge retiring in the report of 2019. There were 4 complaints pending as of December 31, 2020.

Should any member of the legislature, or staff, have questions or need additional information, they may contact Shelly Smith, the Commission's executive secretary, or any member of the Commission.

Very truly yours,

Hon. Mike Menahan, Chairman
JUDICIAL STANDARDS COMMISSION
