6 WHEREAS, Montanans supported, fought, died, and were wounded in all theaters of World War II. As 7 Joseph Howard Kinsey wrote in his text, "High, Wide, and Handsome", of the more than 15 million men and 8 women in the United States Armed Forces during "World War II, Montana furnished 75,000" to the effort.
9 "Proportionately this was near the top of all states. In World War II, as in World War I, Montanans were quick to 10 enlist and they were healthy; the proportion rejected because of physical defect was smaller than the national 11 average." Further, the "Montana death rate in World War II was only exceeded by that of New Mexico in 12 proportion to population. Montana [also] had the record of oversubscribing first in eight World War II saving 13 bond drives."
