13 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MONTANA:

14

15 Section 1. Section 49-2-205, MCA, is amended to read:

16 "49-2-205. Purpose. It is the intent of the legislature that the commission sit in independent judgment
17 of complaints of alleged discrimination in Montana and that the staff operate under the direction and control of 18 the commissioner. The staff is not independent of the commissioner. It is the intent of the legislature that the 19 commission and the department not favor, directly or indirectly, complainants or respondents with procedural or 20 substantive matters of discrimination in Montana. The commission and the department shall maintain the 21 highest standards of objectivity and impartiality when judging cases asserting alleged discrimination in 22 Montana. It is not the intent of the legislature that the department be prohibited from dismissing matters, from 23 referring matters to other agencies following an initial inquiry and interview, or from reaching a decision in an
24 investigation or contested case hearing. It is the intent of the legislature that the department shall receive a filed
25 complaint and notice that the respondent has received the department's notification of the complaint prior to any 26 investigation, formal or informal, and that the department only investigate unlawful discriminatory practices as 27 provided for in Title 49, chapters 2 and 3."

28

1 the allegations without further specificity or requesting additional information from the department. The time for
2 filing an answer may be extended by a showing of good cause.

3 (6) The department shall commence proceedings within 30 days after receipt of a complaint.

4 (7) (a) After the informal investigation, the department shall issue a finding on whether there is
5 reasonable cause to believe that a preponderance of the evidence supports the charging party's allegation of 6 unlawful discrimination. Unless the time period is extended as provided in subsection (2)(b), the finding must be
7 issued within 180 days after a complaint is filed, except that the department shall issue the finding within 120
8 days after a complaint is filed under 49-2-305.

9 (b) If the department finds that there is no reasonable cause to believe that unlawful discrimination
10 occurred, it shall issue a notice of dismissal and dismiss the case from the department's administrative process.
11 After receipt of a notice of dismissal, a charging party may:

12 (i) ~~continue the administrative process by filing objections with the commission as provided in 49-2-~~
13 ~~511; or~~

14 (ii) ~~discontinue the administrative process and~~ commence proceedings in district court as provided in 15 49-2-511.

16 (c) If the department finds that there is reasonable cause to believe that unlawful discrimination
17 occurred and conciliation efforts are unsuccessful, the department shall certify the complaint for hearing
18 pursuant to 49-2-505."

19
20 Section 3. Section 49-2-505, MCA, is amended to read:

21 "49-2-505. Contested case hearing -- appeal to commission or district court -- final agency
22 decision. (1) The department shall hold a contested case hearing on a complaint that is certified for hearing
23 under 49-2-504 or that is remanded for hearing by the commission or by a reviewing court. The department
24 shall serve notice of the hearing and a copy of the complaint on the parties.

25 (2) If the parties mutually agree to extend the time for hearing beyond 12 months after the 26 complaint is filed, then the parties shall stipulate to a schedule for proceedings to be established by the 27 department. The department shall, not later than 395 days after the complaint was filed, set a date for an 28 administrative hearing in the case in accordance with the stipulated schedule. After a hearing date is set, the

1 department may, in its sole discretion, issue a continuance of the hearing date only upon a showing of good
2 cause.

3 (3) (a) The hearing must be held by the department in the county where the unlawful conduct is
4 alleged to have occurred unless a party requests and is granted a change of venue for good cause shown. The 5 case in support of the complaint may be presented before the department by the charging party or an attorney
6 representing the charging party. The hearing must be held in accordance with the applicable portions of the 7 Montana Rules of Civil Procedure.

8 (b) Upon request of the hearings officer, the department may present evidence with regard to 9 activity conducted. However, except in cases brought pursuant to 42 U.S.C. 3601, et seq., the department may 10 not represent either party in a contested case hearing.

11 (c) If the case is not settled, fully decided on order or motion, or otherwise resolved, after a
12 hearing, the hearings officer shall issue a decision. If the decision is not appealed to the commission or district
13 court within 14 days as provided in subsection (4), the decision becomes final and is not appealable to district
14 court the decision becomes final as provided in subsection (4).

15 (4) A party may appeal a decision of the hearings officer by filing an appeal with the commission
16 within 14 days after the issuance of the notice of decision of the administrative hearing or by filing an appeal
17 with the district court within 14 days of the decision of the administrative hearing. If a party timely appeals to the 18 commission, ~~the other a~~ party may remove the matter to district court within 14 days of the appeal to the 19 commission ~~only if the other party agrees.~~

20 (5) The commission shall hear all appeals within 120 days of receipt of an appeal. The commission
21 may affirm, reject, or modify the decision in whole or in part. The commission shall render a final agency
22 decision within 90 days of hearing the appeal.

23 (6) All hearings conducted under this section may, upon stipulation of the parties, be heard
24 telephonically.

25 (7) The department or the commission may make provisions for defraying the expenses of an
26 indigent party in a hearing held pursuant to this chapter.

27 (8) The prevailing party in a hearing under this section may bring an action in district court for 28 attorney fees and costs. The court in its discretion may allow the prevailing party reasonable attorney fees and

1 costs. An action under this section must comply with the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure.

2 (9) Within 30 days after the commission issues a final agency decision in writing under subsection
3 (5), a party may petition a district court for judicial review of the final agency decision as provided in 2-4-702."

4

5 Section 4. Section 49-2-511, MCA, is amended to read:

6 "49-2-511. Dismissal after informal proceedings -- filing of objections -- procedures -- action in

7 district court. (1) If the department, after the informal investigation, issues a notice of dismissal under 49-2-

8 501(5) ~~or 49-2-504(7)(b)~~, a charging party may file objections to the dismissal with the commission. The 9 objections must be filed with the commission within 14 days after the issuance of the notice of dismissal.

10 (2) (a) The commission shall consider the objection in an informal hearing and review the 11 department's findings for an abuse of discretion.

12 (b) If the commission overrules the objection, it shall issue its order affirming the department's 13 notice of dismissal.

14 (c) If the commission sustains the objection, it shall reopen the case by remanding it to the 15 department.

16 (3) (a) Within 90 days after the department has issued a notice of dismissal pursuant to 49-2-
17 501(5) or 49-2-504(7)(b) or within 90 days after the commission has issued an order affirming the department's 18 notice of dismissal pursuant to subsection (2)(b) of this section, the charging party may commence a civil action
19 for appropriate relief on the merits of the case in the district court in the district in which the alleged violation
20 occurred. If the charging party fails to commence the civil action in the district court within 90 days after the final 21 agency decision has been issued, the claim is barred. The court may provide the same relief as described in 22 49-2-506. In addition, the court may in its discretion allow the prevailing party reasonable attorney fees and 23 costs.

24 (b) Within 30 days after the commission issues an order affirming the department's notice of 25 dismissal pursuant to subsection (2)(b), a party may petition a district court for judicial review of the final agency
26 decision as provided in 2-4-604."
