1 (c) A guardian or conservator of a consumer subject to a guardianship, conservatorship, or other
2 protective arrangement, may exercise the rights on the consumer's behalf regarding the processing of personal 3 data.

4 (4) Except as otherwise provided in [sections 1 through 12], a controller shall comply with a 5 request by a consumer to exercise the consumer rights authorized pursuant to this section as follows:

6 (a) A controller shall respond to the consumer without undue delay, but not later than 45 days after 7 receipt of the request. The controller may extend the response period by 45 additional days when reasonably 8 necessary, considering the complexity and number of the consumer's requests, provided the controller informs 9 the consumer of the extension within the initial 45-day response period and the reason for the extension.

10 (b) If a controller declines to act regarding the consumer's request, the controller shall inform the 11 consumer without undue delay, but not later than 45 days after receipt of the request, of the justification for 12 declining to act and provide instructions for how to appeal the decision.

13 (c) Information provided in response to a consumer request must be provided by a controller, free
14 of charge, once for each consumer during any 12-month period. If requests from a consumer are manifestly
15 unfounded, excessive, technically infeasible, or repetitive, the controller may charge the consumer a 16 reasonable fee to cover the administrative costs of complying with the request or decline to act on the request.
17 The controller bears the burden of demonstrating the manifestly unfounded, excessive, technically infeasible, or 18 repetitive nature of the request.

19 (d) If a controller is unable to authenticate a request to exercise any of the rights afforded under 20 subsections (1)(a) through (1)(e) of this section using commercially reasonable efforts, the controller may not 21 be required to comply with a request to initiate an action pursuant to this section and shall provide notice to the 22 consumer that the controller is unable to authenticate the request to exercise the right or rights until the 23 consumer provides additional information reasonably necessary to authenticate the consumer and the 24 consumer's request to exercise the consumer's rights. A controller may not be required to authenticate an opt-25 out request, but a controller may deny an opt-out request if the controller has a good faith, reasonable, and 26 documented belief that the request is fraudulent. If a controller denies an opt-out request because the controller 27 believes the request is fraudulent, the controller shall send notice to the person who made the request

13 conspicuously available and like the process for submitting requests to initiate action pursuant to this section.
14 Not later than 60 days after receipt of an appeal, a controller shall inform the consumer in writing of any action
15 taken or not taken in response to the appeal, including a written explanation of the reasons for the decisions. If 16 the appeal is denied, the controller shall also provide the consumer with an online mechanism, if available, or 17 other method through which the consumer may contact the attorney general to submit a complaint.

21 consumer's personal data for one or more of the purposes specified in [section 5(1)(e)].

22 (2) A controller shall comply with an opt-out request received from an authorized agent if the

22 [sections 1 through 12], including denying goods or services, charging different prices or rates for goods or
