Description of fiscal impact: SB 214 authorizes the Montana Board of Speech-Language Pathologists and Audiologists to join a multi-state national licensure compact. SB 214 allows licensees to use telehealth technology to provide services and provides for fingerprint and background checks for license applicants. This bill has no fiscal impact to the Department of Labor & Industry.

FISCAL ANALYSIS

Assumptions:

1. There will be rulemaking to enact this legislation, however those costs can be absorbed with current authority and revenue.
2. License applicants will be responsible for the cost of providing a fingerprint and background check as part of the documentation for their license application.
