* Bill No. ****

Introduced By *****

By Request of the *****

A Bill for an Act entitled: "An Act clarifying responsibility for costs of medical treatment of a person who is detained by a local law enforcement officer and who requires immediate medical treatment for a condition or injury directly attributable to interaction with a local law enforcement officer and costs of additional security costs incurred by a medical treatment provider; and providing an immediate effective date and an applicability date."

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. Detainee medical costs -- payment

-- definitions. (1) If a detainee requires medical treatment, the detainee is responsible for costs incurred by a hospital or a physician for:

(a) the medical treatment of injuries incurred during a detainee's interaction with a law enforcement officer if the injuries are not the result of negligent or intentionally tortious acts committed by the law enforcement officer; and

(b) additional security costs for confinement of the detainee.

(2) If a detainee is found to be able to pay for the detainee's medical costs, as provided in subsection (1), the hospital and the physician that treats the detainee shall collect the cost of the treatment from the detainee or may pursue reimbursement from a third-party payor for the services provided.

(3) (a) If the hospital or the physician is unable to collect from the detainee or third-party payor within 120 days from the date of the service, the county is responsible for reimbursing the hospital and the physician for services incurred by the hospital and the physician in the treatment of a detainee's condition or injury that is directly attributable to the detainee's interaction with a county law enforcement officer and for additional security costs for confinement of the detainee. Reimbursement under this subsection shall be at:

(i) the medicaid reimbursement rate or at a rate that is 70% of the provider's customary charges, whichever is greater; or
(ii) a negotiated rate.

(b) If the hospital or physician is reimbursed by the detainee or the third-party payor after the hospital or physician has been reimbursed by the county, the hospital and physician shall refund to the county the amount that the hospital or physician had been paid by the county for the services provided to the detainee.

(4) A detainee's inability to pay may not be a factor in providing necessary medical care for a detainee.

(5) This section does not restrict an detainee's right to use a third-party payor.

(6) As used in this section, the following definitions apply:

(a) "Detainee" means a person who is in the custody of a county law enforcement officer, who requires immediate medical attention, and who is under arrest or would likely be placed under arrest except for the need for immediate medical attention, whether or not the person has been arrested, charged with a crime, or booked into a detention facility or jail and whether or not a detention facility or jail has formally accepted custody of the person.

(b) "Hospital" means a critical access hospital as defined in 50-5-101 or a hospital as defined in 50-5-101.

(c) "Physician" means a physician as defined in 37-3-102.

NEW SECTION. Section 2. Detainee medical costs -- payment

-- definitions. (1) If a detainee requires medical treatment, the detainee is responsible for costs incurred by a hospital or a physician for:

(a) the medical treatment of injuries incurred during a detainee's interaction with a law enforcement officer if the injuries are not the result of negligent or intentionally tortious acts committed by the law enforcement officer; and

(b) additional security costs for confinement of the detainee.

(2) If a detainee is found to be able to pay for the detainee's medical costs, as provided in subsection (1), the hospital and the physician that treats the detainee shall collect the cost of the treatment from the detainee or may pursue reimbursement from a third-party payor for the services provided.
